Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp

Workbook

Use with the reader. For each part: 10 word cards, 10 fill-in-the-blank questions, notes on old words and old expressions, and questions to talk about.

Text: Andrew Lang, The Blue Fairy Book (1889), public domain. Every sentence and event is kept; only words no longer in everyday use were replaced with today's words. Part divisions, markings and exercises were added by the English Book Club.

How to Use This Workbook

1. Read one part in the reader.
2. Study the 10 word cards.
3. Do the 10 practice questions without looking back.
4. Read the notes on old words (†) and old expressions (※).
5. Check the table of updated words to see how the 1889 English was changed.
6. Choose a question to talk about at the meeting.

highlighted — a word studied in the workbook

dotted † — an old word kept because there is no good modern replacement (see the workbook)

blue line ※ — an old expression that people no longer use (see the workbook)
