ENGLISH BOOK CLUB WORKBOOK

Animal Farm

George Orwell

Chapters 1–10

Vocabulary & Usage Workbook — read each chapter in your own copy of the book, then use this workbook to study 20 key words per chapter, practise them in context, and prepare for discussion.

How to Use This Workbook

1. Read the chapter in your own copy and underline the 20 words when you meet them.
2. Study each word card: pronunciation, meaning, common word partners (collocations), and examples.
3. Complete the 20 fill-in-the-blank questions without looking back.
4. Choose two discussion questions to talk about at the meeting.

SEVEN-WEEK READING PLAN (ABOUT 4,300 WORDS A WEEK)

Week 1	Chapters 1–2 — Old Major's dream and the Rebellion
Week 2	Chapters 3–4 — The first harvest and the Battle of the Cowshed
Week 3	Chapter 5 — Snowball is driven out
Week 4	Chapter 6 — Trade and the fallen windmill
Week 5	Chapter 7 — The confessions
Week 6	Chapter 8 — The Battle of the Windmill
Week 7	Chapters 9–10 — Boxer's fate and the final dinner

CONTENTS

Chapter 1	Old Major's Dream
Chapter 2	The Rebellion
Chapter 3	Every Animal According to His Capacity
Chapter 4	The Battle of the Cowshed
Chapter 5	The Windmill and the Dogs
Chapter 6	Trade and the Fallen Windmill
Chapter 7	Confessions
Chapter 8	The Battle of the Windmill
Chapter 9	Boxer
Chapter 10	Manor Farm Again

Summaries, examples and practice sentences are original to this workbook; no text from the novel is reproduced.

CHAPTER 1

Old Major's Dream

SUMMARY

One night, after the drunken farmer Mr. Jones goes to bed, the animals of Manor Farm gather in the big barn to hear Old Major, a respected old boar. He tells them their lives are short, hard and miserable because humans take everything they produce, and he urges them to prepare for a Rebellion that will one day set them free. He teaches them a song, 'Beasts of England', and the excited singing wakes Mr. Jones, who fires his gun and breaks up the meeting.

WHO'S WHO

Mr. Jones	the owner of Manor Farm; careless and often drunk
Old Major	a wise, respected old boar who shares his dream of freedom
Boxer	a huge, strong cart-horse; not clever but hard-working and trusted
Clover	a gentle, motherly mare who protects the weak
Benjamin	an old, grumpy donkey who rarely speaks or laughs
Mollie	a pretty, vain white mare who loves sugar and ribbons
Moses	Mr. Jones's tame raven

WORDS IN THIS CHAPTER

lurch · stir · regard · ensconced · stout · majestic · benevolent · conceal · cynical · devoted · contentedly · laborious · slaughter · abundance · abolish · tyranny · rebellion · falter · overwhelming · vice

CHAPTER 1

Vocabulary

01 lurch v. LURCH · /lɜːrtʃ/ (비틀거리며 가다, 휘청하다)

COLLOCATIONS lurch forward · lurch across the room · lurch to a stop

IN THE STORY Mr. Jones is so drunk that he cannot walk straight across the yard.

- The bus lurched forward, and everyone grabbed the handles.
- After the long flight, I lurched off the plane half asleep.

02 stir n. / v. STIR · /stɜːr/ (움직임, 동요 / 움직이다, 불러일으키다)

COLLOCATIONS cause a stir · stir up trouble · stir emotions

IN THE STORY As soon as the farmhouse light goes out, the animals begin to move about.

- The news of the new teacher caused quite a stir at school.
- Her speech stirred strong feelings in the audience.

03 regard v. re-GARD · /rɪˈgɑːrd/ (여기다, 존경하다)

COLLOCATIONS be highly regarded · regard A as B · with regard to

IN THE STORY Old Major is so respected that everyone gives up sleep to hear him.

- She is highly regarded as one of the best doctors in the city.
- Many people regard this novel as a classic.

04 ensconced adj. en-SCONCED · /ɪnˈskɑːnst/ ((편안하게) 자리 잡은)

COLLOCATIONS be ensconced in a chair · comfortably ensconced

IN THE STORY Major is already settled on his straw bed before the others arrive.

- By the time we arrived, Grandpa was ensconced in his favorite armchair.
- The cat was comfortably ensconced on the warm laptop.

05 stout adj. STOUT · /staʊt/ (통통한, 튼튼한)

COLLOCATIONS a stout man · stout boots · grow stout

IN THE STORY Major has become rather heavy in his old age.

- A stout old man opened the door and smiled at us.
- You will need stout shoes for the mountain trail.

06 majestic adj. ma-JES-tic · /məˈdʒestɪk/ (위엄 있는, 장엄한)

COLLOCATIONS a majestic view · majestic mountains · look majestic

IN THE STORY Even at twelve, Major still looks grand and dignified.

- We stood in silence before the majestic mountains.
- The lion walked slowly, looking calm and majestic.

07 benevolent adj. be-NEV-o-lent · /bəˈnevələnt/ (자비로운, 인자한)

COLLOCATIONS a benevolent smile · a benevolent ruler · benevolent fund

IN THE STORY Major has a wise and kind face, even with his long tusks.

- The old teacher gave the nervous student a benevolent smile.
- People hoped the new king would be a benevolent ruler.

CHAPTER 1

Vocabulary (continued)

08 conceal v. con-CEAL · /kənˈsiːl/ (숨기다, 감추다)

COLLOCATIONS conceal the truth · conceal one's feelings · be concealed in

IN THE STORY The horses step carefully in case a small animal is hidden in the straw.

- He tried to conceal his disappointment, but his face showed it.
- The key was concealed under a flowerpot.

09 cynical adj. CYN-i-cal · /ˈsɪnɪkəl/ (냉소적인)

COLLOCATIONS a cynical remark · cynical about politics · grow cynical

IN THE STORY Benjamin seldom talks, and when he does, his comments are bitter.

- After years of broken promises, she became cynical about politicians.
- "Nothing ever changes," he said in a cynical voice.

10 devoted adj. de-VO-ted · /dɪˈvoʊtɪd/ (헌신적인, 애정이 깊은)

COLLOCATIONS devoted to (someone/something) · a devoted fan · devoted parents

IN THE STORY Benjamin never says so, but he cares deeply about Boxer.

- She is devoted to her children and her work.
- He is a devoted fan who has never missed a game.

11 contentedly adv. con-TENT-ed-ly · /kənˈtentɪdli/ (만족스럽게)

COLLOCATIONS smile contentedly · sigh contentedly · purr contentedly

IN THE STORY The cat purrs happily between the horses without listening at all.

- The baby fell asleep contentedly after her bottle.
- He leaned back and sighed contentedly after dinner.

12 laborious adj. la-BOR-i-ous · /ləˈbɔːriəs/ (고된, 힘든)

COLLOCATIONS a laborious task · a laborious process · laborious work

IN THE STORY Major describes the animals' lives as an endless round of hard work.

- Copying the whole book by hand was a laborious task.
- Learning a new language can be a slow and laborious process.

13 slaughter v. / n. SLAUGH-ter · /ˈslɔːtər/ (도살하다 / 도살, 대학살)

COLLOCATIONS be slaughtered · slaughter animals · the slaughter of

IN THE STORY Major warns that animals are killed as soon as they are no longer useful.

- The farmer refused to slaughter his old horse.
- The war ended with the slaughter of thousands of soldiers.

14 abundance n. a-BUN-dance · /əˈbʌndəns/ (풍부함, 넉넉함)

COLLOCATIONS in abundance · an abundance of · food in abundance

IN THE STORY Major claims England's soil could feed far more animals than it does now.

- Fruit grows in abundance on this island.
- The city offers an abundance of cafes and parks.

CHAPTER 1

Vocabulary (continued)

15 abolish v. a-BOL-ish · /əˈbɑːlɪʃ/ (폐지하다, 없애다)

COLLOCATIONS abolish slavery · abolish a law · abolish the system

IN THE STORY If humans are removed, Major says, hunger and overwork will end forever.

- Many countries have abolished the death penalty.
- The school abolished its strict uniform rules last year.

16 tyranny n. TYR-an-ny · /ˈtɪrəni/ (폭정, 압제)

COLLOCATIONS fight against tyranny · the tyranny of · live under tyranny

IN THE STORY Major blames all the animals' suffering on the cruel rule of humans.

- The people finally rose up against years of tyranny.
- Some people feel trapped by the tyranny of the clock.

17 rebellion n. re-BEL-lion · /rɪˈbeljən/ (반란, 저항)

COLLOCATIONS lead a rebellion · crush a rebellion · an act of rebellion

IN THE STORY Major's main message is that the animals must prepare for an uprising.

- The army quickly crushed the rebellion.
- Dyeing her hair green was her small act of rebellion.

18 falter v. FAL-ter · /ˈfɔːltər/ (흔들리다, 머뭇거리다)

COLLOCATIONS never falter · voice falters · courage falters

IN THE STORY Major tells the animals their determination must stay strong.

- Her voice faltered as she began to speak about her father.
- Even when the plan failed, his courage never faltered.

19 overwhelming adj. o-ver-WHELM-ing · /ˌoʊvərˈwelmɪŋ/ (압도적인)

COLLOCATIONS an overwhelming majority · overwhelming evidence · overwhelming feeling

IN THE STORY Almost everyone votes that the rats should be treated as comrades.

- The plan was approved by an overwhelming majority.
- She felt an overwhelming sense of relief.

20 vice n. VICE · /vaɪs/ (악덕, 나쁜 습관)

COLLOCATIONS virtue and vice · a minor vice · give up one's vices

IN THE STORY Major warns the animals not to copy humans' bad habits once they win.

- Chocolate is my only vice.
- The story shows how greed can become a dangerous vice.

CHAPTER 1

Practice: Fill in the Blank

Choose the best word to complete each sentence about Chapter 1. Watch the form of the word (-ed, -s, -ly).

1. Too drunk to walk straight, Mr. Jones _____ toward the house.
(a) galloped (b) tiptoed (c) marched (d) lurched

2. Once the farmer was asleep, a _____ of excitement went around the animals.
(a) stir (b) slaughter (c) vice (d) silence

3. Everyone respected Old Major; he was highly _____ on the farm.
(a) regarded (b) ignored (c) concealed (d) abolished

4. When the others arrived, Major was already comfortably _____ on the platform.
(a) lurched (b) concealed (c) ensconced (d) abandoned

5. Old Major had put on weight with age and was now quite _____.
(a) cynical (b) devoted (c) slender (d) stout

6. Even in old age, Major looked grand and _____.
(a) laborious (b) miserable (c) majestic (d) cynical

7. Major's face showed that he was gentle and _____, not frightening.
(a) overwhelming (b) hostile (c) benevolent (d) laborious

8. The horses stepped carefully because a tiny animal might be _____ under their hoofs.
(a) concealed (b) slaughtered (c) displayed (d) abolished

9. Benjamin did not believe things would ever get better; his comments were often _____.
(a) cheerful (b) cynical (c) benevolent (d) majestic

10. Benjamin never said so, but he cared deeply for Boxer and was _____ to him.
(a) stout (b) hostile (c) devoted (d) indifferent

Practice (continued)

11. The cat found a warm spot and purred _____, paying no attention to the meeting.
(a) angrily (b) contentedly (c) anxiously (d) laboriously

12. Major said an animal's life was full of hard, _____ work and ended too soon.
(a) abundant (b) leisurely (c) laborious (d) majestic

13. Major warned that animals who can no longer work are _____ by humans.
(a) slaughtered (b) ensconced (c) rewarded (d) regarded

14. Major believed the land could feed every animal, with food in _____.
(a) secret (b) tyranny (c) shortage (d) abundance

15. Major promised that without humans, hunger would be _____ for good.
(a) regarded (b) concealed (c) increased (d) abolished

16. Major said the animals suffered under the cruel _____ of their human masters.
(a) tyranny (b) kindness (c) abundance (d) rebellion

17. Major could not say when the _____ would happen, only that it surely would.
(a) Rebellion (b) harvest (c) vote (d) vice

18. Major told the animals to stay strong and never let their courage _____.
(a) succeed (b) abolish (c) conceal (d) falter

19. Almost every animal voted yes, so the rats won by an _____ majority.
(a) laborious (b) cynical (c) overwhelming (d) narrow

20. Major said animals must never copy humans' bad habits, or _____, such as drinking.
(a) rebellions (b) vices (c) virtues (d) abundances

CHAPTER 1

Let's Talk

Pick two questions. Try to use at least one word from this chapter in your answer.

1. Old Major changed the animals' thinking in a single night. Have you ever heard a speech or talk that changed your mind? What made it powerful?

2. Which animal are you most like right now: hard-working Boxer, caring Clover, doubtful Benjamin, or Mollie who loves pretty things? Why?

3. Major says humans eat and drink what animals produce but make nothing themselves. Have you seen a situation at work, school, or home where one person does the work and another takes the credit?

4. Major tells the animals never to copy human habits, even after they win. Why do you think people who fight against something sometimes end up becoming like it?

5. The animals vote on whether the rats are their comrades. In your own groups (family, friends, this book club), how do you decide who belongs?

ANSWER KEY

1. (d) lurched
2. (a) stir
3. (a) regarded
4. (c) ensconced
5. (d) stout
6. (c) majestic
7. (c) benevolent
8. (a) concealed
9. (b) cynical
10. (c) devoted
11. (b) contentedly
12. (c) laborious
13. (a) slaughtered
14. (d) abundance
15. (d) abolished
16. (a) tyranny
17. (a) Rebellion
18. (d) falter
19. (c) overwhelming
20. (b) vices

CHAPTER 2

The Rebellion

SUMMARY

Old Major dies, and the cleverest pigs, Snowball, Napoleon and Squealer, turn his ideas into a system called Animalism. One Midsummer's Eve, Mr. Jones forgets to feed the animals, and their hungry anger suddenly drives him and his men off the farm. The animals rename it Animal Farm and paint Seven Commandments on the barn wall, but by evening the cows' milk has quietly disappeared.

NEW FACES

Snowball	a lively, inventive pig with many ideas
Napoleon	a large, fierce-looking pig who quietly gets his own way
Squealer	a small, fat pig and a brilliant, persuasive talker

WORDS IN THIS CHAPTER

predict · reputation · persuasive · elaborate · apathy · loyalty · counteract · faithful · disheartened · neglect · accord · tormentor · uprising · expel · triumph · trace · awe · luxury · unanimous · inscribe

CHAPTER 2

Vocabulary

01 predict v. pre-DICT · /prɪˈdɪkt/ (예측하다, 예언하다)

COLLOCATIONS predict the future · predict that ... · as predicted

IN THE STORY Nobody knows when the Rebellion Major spoke about will happen.

- Experts predict that prices will rise next year.
- Just as the forecast predicted, it rained all weekend.

02 reputation n. rep-u-TA-tion · /ˌrepjuˈteɪʃən/ (평판, 명성)

COLLOCATIONS have a reputation for · ruin one's reputation · a good reputation

IN THE STORY Napoleon is known for always getting what he wants.

- This restaurant has a reputation for excellent service.
- One careless mistake can ruin a company's reputation.

03 persuasive adj. per-SUA-sive · /pərˈsweɪsɪv/ (설득력 있는)

COLLOCATIONS a persuasive argument · highly persuasive · persuasive speaker

IN THE STORY Squealer can talk others into believing almost anything.

- She made a persuasive case for changing the schedule.
- Good salespeople are often very persuasive.

04 elaborate v. e-LAB-o-rate · /ɪˈlæbəreɪt/ (자세히 발전시키다, 상세히 설명하다)

COLLOCATIONS elaborate on · elaborate a plan · elaborate an idea

IN THE STORY The three pigs build Major's ideas into a full system of thought.

- Could you elaborate on what you said earlier?
- The team elaborated the basic idea into a detailed plan.

05 apathy n. AP-a-thy · /ˈæpəθi/ (무관심, 냉담)

COLLOCATIONS voter apathy · public apathy · overcome apathy

IN THE STORY At first many animals simply do not care about the pigs' lessons.

- Voter apathy led to the lowest turnout in years.
- The teacher tried hard to overcome her students' apathy.

06 loyalty n. LOY-al-ty · /ˈlɔɪəlti/ (충성, 의리)

COLLOCATIONS loyalty to · customer loyalty · show loyalty

IN THE STORY Some animals still feel they owe faithfulness to Mr. Jones.

- Dogs are famous for their loyalty to their owners.
- The company rewards customer loyalty with discounts.

07 counteract v. coun-ter-ACT · /ˌkaʊntərˈækt/ (대응하다, 효과를 없애다)

COLLOCATIONS counteract the effects · counteract rumours · help counteract

IN THE STORY The pigs work hard against Moses's stories about Sugarcandy Mountain.

- Drinking water helps counteract the effects of the heat.
- The company published the facts to counteract the rumours.

CHAPTER 2

Vocabulary (continued)

08 faithful adj. FAITH-ful · /ˈfeɪθfəl/ (충실한, 신의 있는)

COLLOCATIONS a faithful friend · remain faithful to · faithful follower

IN THE STORY Boxer and Clover become the pigs' most loyal students.

- He remained faithful to his promise for twenty years.
- My old car has been a faithful companion on many trips.

09 disheartened adj. dis-HEART-ened · /dɪsˈhɑːrtnd/ (낙담한, 의욕을 잃은)

COLLOCATIONS feel disheartened · disheartened by · become disheartened

IN THE STORY After losing money in a lawsuit, Mr. Jones loses heart and drinks.

- She felt disheartened after failing the test again.
- Don't be disheartened by one bad review.

10 neglect v. / n. ne-GLECT · /nɪˈglekt/ (방치하다, 소홀히 하다 / 방치)

COLLOCATIONS neglect one's duties · be neglected · years of neglect

IN THE STORY Weeds fill the fields and the hedges are left uncared for.

- He neglected his health while working long hours.
- The old house fell apart after years of neglect.

11 accord n. ac-CORD · /əˈkɔːrd/ (일치, 합의)

COLLOCATIONS with one accord · of one's own accord · reach an accord

IN THE STORY Without any plan, all the hungry animals attack the men together.

- With one accord, the crowd rose to its feet.
- Nobody asked him; he cleaned the kitchen of his own accord.

12 tormentor n. tor-MEN-tor · /tɔːrˈmentər/ (괴롭히는 사람, 가해자)

COLLOCATIONS face one's tormentors · escape from a tormentor

IN THE STORY The animals turn on the men who have whipped and mistreated them.

- The bullied boy finally stood up to his tormentors.
- In the film, the hero escapes from his cruel tormentor.

13 uprising n. UP-ris-ing · /ˈʌpraɪzɪŋ/ (봉기, 반란)

COLLOCATIONS a popular uprising · crush an uprising · armed uprising

IN THE STORY The sudden revolt of the animals frightens Jones and his men.

- The government sent soldiers to crush the uprising.
- The uprising began with a small protest in the square.

14 expel v. ex-PEL · /ɪkˈspel/ (쫓아내다, 추방하다)

COLLOCATIONS be expelled from · expel a student · expel air

IN THE STORY In just a few minutes, Jones is driven off his own farm.

- He was expelled from school for cheating.
- Breathe in deeply, then slowly expel the air.

CHAPTER 2

Vocabulary (continued)

15 triumph n. TRI-umph · /ˈtraɪʌmf/ (승리, 의기양양함)

COLLOCATIONS in triumph · a great triumph · triumph over

IN THE STORY The animals chase the men down the track, full of victory.

- The team returned home in triumph.
- Her recovery was a triumph over a serious illness.

16 trace n. TRACE · /treɪs/ (흔적, 자취)

COLLOCATIONS the last traces of · without a trace · leave no trace

IN THE STORY The animals destroy whips and nose-rings, every sign of Jones's rule.

- The thief disappeared without a trace.
- There was still a trace of perfume in the room.

17 awe n. AWE · /ɔː/ (경외감)

COLLOCATIONS in awe of · gaze in awe · a sense of awe

IN THE STORY The animals tiptoe through the farmhouse, amazed by everything.

- We stood in awe at the edge of the Grand Canyon.
- Young players are often in awe of famous athletes.

18 luxury n. LUX-u-ry · /ˈlʌkʃəri/ (사치, 호화로움)

COLLOCATIONS live in luxury · a luxury hotel · an unaffordable luxury

IN THE STORY Feather beds and mirrors seem unbelievably fancy to the animals.

- For a busy mother, an afternoon nap is a real luxury.
- They stayed at a luxury hotel for their honeymoon.

19 unanimous adj. u-NAN-i-mous · /juˈnænɪməs/ (만장일치의)

COLLOCATIONS a unanimous decision · unanimous vote · unanimous agreement

IN THE STORY Every animal agrees to keep the farmhouse as a museum.

- The committee reached a unanimous decision.
- The vote was unanimous: everyone wanted pizza.

20 inscribe v. in-SCRIBE · /ɪnˈskraɪb/ (새기다, 적다)

COLLOCATIONS inscribe a name on · be inscribed with · inscribed in stone

IN THE STORY Snowball paints the Seven Commandments on the barn wall.

- Their names were inscribed on the trophy.
- The ring was inscribed with the date of their wedding.

CHAPTER 2

Practice: Fill in the Blank

Choose the best word to complete each sentence about Chapter 2. Watch the form of the word (-ed, -s, -ly).

1. The Rebellion that Major had _____ came much sooner than anyone expected.
(a) forgotten (b) abolished (c) predicted (d) concealed

2. Everyone knew Napoleon as a pig who usually got what he wanted; that was his _____.
(a) reputation (b) rebellion (c) luxury (d) apathy

3. Squealer was so _____ that he could make others believe almost anything.
(a) persuasive (b) disheartened (c) unanimous (d) faithful

4. The pigs took Major's few ideas and _____ them into a whole system.
(a) elaborated (b) expelled (c) inscribed (d) neglected

5. Many animals did not care about the lessons at all; the pigs struggled against their _____.
(a) awe (b) apathy (c) triumph (d) luxury

6. Some animals still felt they owed _____ to Mr. Jones, their old master.
(a) accord (b) loyalty (c) tyranny (d) apathy

7. The pigs argued against Moses's tales to _____ their effect on the others.
(a) predict (b) inscribe (c) expel (d) counteract

8. Boxer and Clover believed everything the pigs taught; they were _____ students.
(a) disheartened (b) faithful (c) cynical (d) persuasive

9. After losing a court case, Mr. Jones felt _____ and began to drink heavily.
(a) disheartened (b) delighted (c) faithful (d) unanimous

10. Jones stopped caring for his farm, and everything was _____.
(a) neglected (b) inscribed (c) expelled (d) predicted

Practice (continued)

11. All together, with one _____, the hungry animals turned on the men.
(a) triumph (b) accord (c) trace (d) awe

12. The animals finally fought back against the men, their _____.
(a) tormentors (b) leaders (c) comrades (d) disciples

13. The men never expected an _____ from animals they had always beaten.
(a) loyalty (b) apathy (c) luxury (d) uprising

14. In a few minutes, Jones was _____ and the farm was in the animals' hands.
(a) neglected (b) elaborated (c) expelled (d) inscribed

15. The animals celebrated; they felt a great sense of _____.
(a) apathy (b) awe (c) triumph (d) trace

16. The animals burned the whips so that no _____ of Jones's rule remained.
(a) triumph (b) trace (c) luxury (d) accord

17. The farmhouse amazed the animals; they walked through it in silent _____.
(a) awe (b) triumph (c) loyalty (d) apathy

18. To the animals, a soft feather bed was an unimaginable _____.
(a) uprising (b) luxury (c) accord (d) apathy

19. Every animal agreed, so the decision to make the farmhouse a museum was _____.
(a) persuasive (b) cynical (c) neglected (d) unanimous

20. Snowball _____ the Seven Commandments on the wall for everyone to read.
(a) expelled (b) predicted (c) counteracted (d) inscribed

CHAPTER 2

Let's Talk

Pick two questions. Try to use at least one word from this chapter in your answer.

1. Mollie asks whether there will still be sugar after the Rebellion. What small comfort would be hardest for you to give up for a bigger cause?

2. Moses tells stories about Sugarcandy Mountain. Why do you think the pigs dislike these stories so much?

3. The Rebellion happens suddenly, without a plan. Has a big change ever happened suddenly in your life? How did it feel?

4. At the end of the chapter, the milk disappears and no one asks where it went. What do you think happened, and why does nobody ask?

5. Look at the Seven Commandments. Which one do you think will be the hardest to keep? Why?

ANSWER KEY

1. (c) predicted
2. (a) reputation
3. (a) persuasive
4. (a) elaborated
5. (b) apathy
6. (b) loyalty
7. (d) counteract
8. (b) faithful
9. (a) disheartened
10. (a) neglected
11. (b) accord
12. (a) tormentors
13. (d) uprising
14. (c) expelled
15. (c) triumph
16. (b) trace
17. (a) awe
18. (b) luxury
19. (d) unanimous
20. (d) inscribed

CHAPTER 3

Every Animal According to His Capacity

SUMMARY

The animals bring in the biggest harvest the farm has ever had, with the pigs giving directions and Boxer working harder than anyone. Sundays bring a flag, a Meeting and debates, where Snowball and Napoleon disagree about everything; Snowball forms committees, teaches reading, and boils the commandments down to one short slogan. Meanwhile Napoleon takes nine puppies away to raise them himself, and Squealer explains why the milk and apples must go to the pigs alone.

WORDS IN THIS CHAPTER

toil · supervise · assume · humble · clockwork · grudging · parasite · motto · shirk · obstinate · cryptic · ceremony · resolution · oppose · indefatigable · literate · maxim · seclusion · privilege · reserve

CHAPTER 3

Vocabulary

01 toil v. / n. TOIL · /tɔɪl/ (힘들게 일하다 / 노고)

COLLOCATIONS toil away · toil in the fields · years of toil

IN THE STORY The animals sweat and work hard to bring in the hay.

- Farmers toiled in the fields from sunrise to sunset.
- After years of toil, she finally opened her own shop.

02 supervise v. SU-per-vise · /ˈsuːpərvaɪz/ (감독하다, 관리하다)

COLLOCATIONS supervise workers · closely supervise · supervise children

IN THE STORY The pigs do not work themselves; they direct and watch the others.

- A lifeguard supervises the children at the pool.
- She supervises a team of ten engineers.

03 assume v. as-SUME · /əˈsuːm/ ((책임·역할을) 떠맡다, 가정하다)

COLLOCATIONS assume leadership · assume responsibility · assume that ...

IN THE STORY Because they know more, the pigs naturally take charge.

- The vice president assumed leadership after the scandal.
- Don't assume that everyone agrees with you.

04 humble adj. HUM-ble · /ˈhʌmbəl/ (보잘것없는, 겸손한)

COLLOCATIONS humble beginnings · a humble home · humble attitude

IN THE STORY Every animal, even the smallest, helps turn the hay.

- The famous chef grew up in a humble village.
- Despite his success, he stayed humble and kind.

05 clockwork n. CLOCK-work · /ˈklɑːkwɜːrk/ (태엽 장치 (like clockwork: 순조롭게))

COLLOCATIONS go like clockwork · run like clockwork · as regular as clockwork

IN THE STORY All summer the farm runs smoothly, without problems.

- The wedding went like clockwork.
- He arrives at 8 a.m. every day, as regular as clockwork.

06 grudging adj. GRUDG-ing · /ˈgrʌdʒɪŋ/ (마지못해 하는, 인색한)

COLLOCATIONS grudging respect · grudging admiration · a grudging apology

IN THE STORY Food is no longer handed out unwillingly by a stingy master.

- The rival team earned our grudging respect.
- He gave a grudging apology and left the room.

07 parasite n. PAR-a-site · /ˈpærəsaɪt/ (기생충, 기생하는 사람)

COLLOCATIONS a social parasite · live like a parasite · parasites feed on

IN THE STORY The animals see humans as useless creatures who live off others.

- Ticks are parasites that feed on animals' blood.
- He called his lazy roommate a parasite.

CHAPTER 3

Vocabulary (continued)

08 motto n. MOT-to · /ˈmɑːtoʊ/ (좌우명, 표어)

COLLOCATIONS a personal motto · the school motto · live by a motto

IN THE STORY Boxer makes working harder his personal rule for life.

- My grandmother's motto was "Never waste food."
- The school motto is written above the main door.

09 shirk v. SHIRK · /ʃɜːrk/ ((일·책임을) 회피하다)

COLLOCATIONS shirk one's duties · shirk responsibility · shirk work

IN THE STORY Almost no one avoids work, except Mollie and the cat.

- A good leader never shirks responsibility.
- He was fired for shirking his duties.

10 obstinate adj. OB-sti-nate · /ˈɑːbstɪnət/ (고집 센, 완강한)

COLLOCATIONS an obstinate child · obstinate refusal · remain obstinate

IN THE STORY Benjamin works in the same slow, stubborn way as before.

- My obstinate cat refuses to eat any new food.
- Despite all the evidence, he remained obstinate.

11 cryptic adj. CRYP-tic · /ˈkrɪptɪk/ (수수께끼 같은, 아리송한)

COLLOCATIONS a cryptic message · cryptic remark · cryptic clue

IN THE STORY Benjamin answers questions about his happiness with a puzzling remark.

- She left a cryptic note: "See you where it began."
- The crossword has some very cryptic clues.

12 ceremony n. CER-e-mo-ny · /ˈserəmoʊni/ (의식, 식)

COLLOCATIONS a wedding ceremony · hold a ceremony · opening ceremony

IN THE STORY Every Sunday begins with raising the flag.

- The graduation ceremony lasted three hours.
- Millions watched the Olympic opening ceremony.

13 resolution n. res-o-LU-tion · /ˌrezəˈluːʃən/ (결의(안), 다짐)

COLLOCATIONS pass a resolution · put forward a resolution · New Year's resolution

IN THE STORY At the Sunday Meeting, the pigs always suggest the proposals.

- The council passed a resolution to build a new park.
- My New Year's resolution is to read more books.

14 oppose v. op-POSE · /əˈpoʊz/ (반대하다)

COLLOCATIONS strongly oppose · be opposed to · oppose a plan

IN THE STORY Whatever Snowball suggests, Napoleon is against it, and the reverse.

- Many residents oppose the new airport.
- I'm not opposed to the idea, but we need more time.

CHAPTER 3

Vocabulary (continued)

15 indefatigable adj. in-de-FAT-i-ga-ble · /ˌɪndɪˈfætɪgəbəl/ (지칠 줄 모르는)

COLLOCATIONS an indefatigable worker · indefatigable energy · indefatigable campaigner

IN THE STORY Snowball never tires of organising committees.

- Our indefatigable coach trained with us every morning.
- She is an indefatigable campaigner for children's rights.

16 literate adj. LIT-er-ate · /ˈlɪtərət/ (글을 읽고 쓸 줄 아는)

COLLOCATIONS become literate · computer literate · highly literate

IN THE STORY By autumn, nearly every animal can read at least a little.

- Most adults in the country are now literate.
- These days, most jobs require you to be computer literate.

17 maxim n. MAX-im · /ˈmæksɪm/ (격언, 금언)

COLLOCATIONS an old maxim · follow a maxim · the maxim that ...

IN THE STORY Snowball shortens the commandments into one simple saying.

- "Less is more" is a popular maxim in design.
- He followed the maxim that honesty is the best policy.

18 seclusion n. se-CLU-sion · /sɪˈkluːʒən/ (격리, 은둔)

COLLOCATIONS in seclusion · live in seclusion · keep in seclusion

IN THE STORY Napoleon hides the puppies in a loft where no one sees them.

- After retiring, the singer lived in seclusion in the mountains.
- Some writers need complete seclusion to work.

19 privilege n. PRIV-i-lege · /ˈprɪvəlɪdʒ/ (특권, 특혜)

COLLOCATIONS special privileges · a privilege to · abuse one's privilege

IN THE STORY Squealer insists the pigs are not taking milk and apples as a special right.

- It was a privilege to meet such a great artist.
- Senior staff enjoy certain privileges, like free parking.

20 reserve v. re-SERVE · /rɪˈzɜːrv/ (따로 남겨두다, 예약하다)

COLLOCATIONS be reserved for · reserve a table · reserve the right

IN THE STORY In the end, the milk and apples are kept for the pigs only.

- These seats are reserved for elderly passengers.
- I reserved a table for four at seven o'clock.

CHAPTER 3

Practice: Fill in the Blank

Choose the best word to complete each sentence about Chapter 3. Watch the form of the word (-ed, -s, -ly).

1. Bringing in the hay was hard; the animals _____ from morning to night.
(a) reserved (b) opposed (c) toiled (d) shirked

2. Instead of working, the pigs watched over and _____ the other animals.
(a) supervised (b) toiled (c) inscribed (d) shirked

3. Because they knew the most, the pigs decided to _____ control of the farm.
(a) shirk (b) abolish (c) assume (d) oppose

4. Even the smallest and most _____ animals, like ducks and hens, helped.
(a) clever (b) humble (c) proud (d) strong

5. Everything on the farm ran like _____ that summer.
(a) ceremony (b) clockwork (c) privilege (d) maxim

6. Now the animals ate their own food, not scraps from a _____ master who hated to share.
(a) cryptic (b) benevolent (c) grudging (d) literate

7. The animals saw humans as _____ who lived off other creatures' work.
(a) mottos (b) privileges (c) parasites (d) comrades

8. Boxer's _____ was simple: whatever the problem, work even harder.
(a) seclusion (b) motto (c) privilege (d) ceremony

9. Almost every animal did its share; only Mollie and the cat _____ their work.
(a) assumed (b) shirked (c) reserved (d) supervised

10. Benjamin refused to change his habits; he was as slow and _____ as ever.
(a) humble (b) grudging (c) indefatigable (d) obstinate

Practice (continued)

11. When asked if he was happier, Benjamin gave only a strange, _____ reply.
(a) humble (b) grudging (c) literate (d) cryptic

12. Sunday mornings started with a flag-raising _____.
(a) maxim (b) resolution (c) motto (d) ceremony

13. At the Sunday Meeting, only the pigs ever suggested new _____.
(a) resolutions (b) seclusions (c) privileges (d) parasites

14. Whatever one of them suggested, the other would _____.
(a) supervise (b) oppose (c) assume (d) toil

15. Snowball never seemed tired; he was _____ in setting up new committees.
(a) grudging (b) indefatigable (c) obstinate (d) cryptic

16. Thanks to the reading classes, many animals became _____.
(a) indefatigable (b) literate (c) obstinate (d) humble

17. Snowball turned the commandments into one short, easy _____ for the slower animals.
(a) maxim (b) privilege (c) ceremony (d) parasite

18. Napoleon hid the puppies in a loft and kept them in _____.
(a) privilege (b) seclusion (c) ceremony (d) clockwork

19. Squealer insisted that taking the milk was a duty, not a _____.
(a) motto (b) parasite (c) maxim (d) privilege

20. In the end, the apples were _____ only for the pigs.
(a) opposed (b) shirked (c) supervised (d) reserved

CHAPTER 3

Let's Talk

Pick two questions. Try to use at least one word from this chapter in your answer.

1. Boxer's answer to every problem is to work harder. Is that a good motto? When does hard work stop being the answer?

2. Benjamin never says whether he is happier now. Do you know people like Benjamin? Why might someone choose to stay quiet?

3. Mollie and the cat avoid work but are not punished. How do groups you know deal with members who don't do their share?

4. Squealer says the pigs take the milk and apples to help everyone else. Can you remember a time someone gave a good-sounding reason for an unfair choice?

5. Napoleon takes the puppies away, saying he will teach them himself. What do you think he is planning?

ANSWER KEY

1. (c) toiled
2. (a) supervised
3. (c) assume
4. (b) humble
5. (b) clockwork
6. (c) grudging
7. (c) parasites
8. (b) motto
9. (b) shirked
10. (d) obstinate
11. (d) cryptic
12. (d) ceremony
13. (a) resolutions
14. (b) oppose
15. (b) indefatigable
16. (b) literate
17. (a) maxim
18. (b) seclusion
19. (d) privilege
20. (d) reserved

CHAPTER 4

The Battle of the Cowshed

SUMMARY

News of the Rebellion spreads, and although neighbouring farmers Pilkington and Frederick dislike each other, both fear their own animals will rebel. In October, Jones and a group of men try to take the farm back, but Snowball's clever plan, with an ambush in the cowshed, sends them running. Snowball and Boxer are decorated as heroes, though Boxer is upset to think he has killed a stable-lad.

NEW FACES

Mr. Pilkington	owner of Foxwood, a large, neglected farm; easy-going
Mr. Frederick	owner of Pinchfield, a smaller, well-kept farm; tough and shrewd

WORDS IN THIS CHAPTER

injustice · misfortune · shrewd · scorn · tolerate · wickedness · rumour · distorted · contemptible · irrepressible · prophecy · recapture · ambush · retreat · spectacle · vengeance · ignominious · sentimentality · impromptu · posthumously

CHAPTER 4

Vocabulary

01 injustice n. in-JUS-tice · /ɪnˈdʒʌstɪs/ (불의, 부당함)

COLLOCATIONS a sense of injustice · social injustice · suffer an injustice

IN THE STORY In the pub, Jones complains about how unfairly he has been treated.

- She spent her life fighting social injustice.
- He felt a deep sense of injustice when he lost his job.

02 misfortune n. mis-FOR-tune · /mɪsˈfɔːrtʃən/ (불운, 불행)

COLLOCATIONS have the misfortune to · suffer misfortune · a series of misfortunes

IN THE STORY The other farmers secretly wonder how to profit from Jones's bad luck.

- I had the misfortune to lose my wallet on holiday.
- The family suffered one misfortune after another.

03 shrewd adj. SHREWD · /ʃruːd/ (약삭빠른, 빈틈없는)

COLLOCATIONS a shrewd businessman · shrewd move · shrewd judgement

IN THE STORY Mr. Frederick is tough and clever at making deals.

- Buying the house before prices rose was a shrewd move.
- She is a shrewd judge of character.

04 scorn n. / v. SCORN · /skɔːrn/ (경멸 / 경멸하다)

COLLOCATIONS laugh to scorn · pour scorn on · with scorn

IN THE STORY At first, the farmers mock the idea of animals running a farm.

- Critics poured scorn on the new plan.
- She looked at the cheap gift with scorn.

05 tolerate v. TOL-er-ate · /ˈtɑːləreɪt/ (용인하다, 참다)

COLLOCATIONS tolerate noise · cannot tolerate · tolerate differences

IN THE STORY The farmers refuse to accept the name "Animal Farm."

- I can't tolerate rude behaviour.
- Some plants tolerate dry conditions well.

06 wickedness n. WICK-ed-ness · /ˈwɪkɪdnəs/ (사악함)

COLLOCATIONS pure wickedness · the wickedness of · acts of wickedness

IN THE STORY Later, the farmers spread stories about terrible evil on the farm.

- The story shows how wickedness can hide behind a smile.
- The villain's wickedness shocked the audience.

07 rumour n. RU-mour · /ˈruːmər/ (소문 (美 rumor))

COLLOCATIONS spread a rumour · rumours circulate · there is a rumour that

IN THE STORY Stories of a farm run by animals keep travelling around the county.

- There's a rumour that the shop is closing.
- Don't spread rumours you can't prove.

CHAPTER 4

Vocabulary (continued)

08 distorted adj. dis-TORT-ed · /dɪsˈtɔːrtɪd/ (왜곡된, 일그러진)

COLLOCATIONS a distorted picture · distorted facts · distorted sound

IN THE STORY The stories spread in unclear and twisted forms.

- The news gave a distorted picture of what happened.
- The old speakers made the music sound distorted.

09 contemptible adj. con-TEMPT-i-ble · /kənˈtemptəbəl/ (비열한, 경멸할 만한)

COLLOCATIONS contemptible behaviour · utterly contemptible · a contemptible lie

IN THE STORY Humans call "Beasts of England" worthless nonsense.

- Cheating your own friends is contemptible.
- It was a contemptible lie told to win votes.

10 irrepressible adj. ir-re-PRESS-i-ble · /ˌɪrɪˈpresəbəl/ (억누를 수 없는)

COLLOCATIONS irrepressible laughter · irrepressible energy · irrepressible spirit

IN THE STORY Even with punishments, the song keeps spreading everywhere.

- The children's irrepressible laughter filled the room.
- Her irrepressible spirit helped her through hard times.

11 prophecy n. PROPH-e-cy · /ˈprɑːfəsi/ (예언)

COLLOCATIONS fulfil a prophecy · an ancient prophecy · self-fulfilling prophecy

IN THE STORY When humans hear the song, they secretly fear it predicts their end.

- The old prophecy said a child would save the kingdom.
- Expecting to fail can become a self-fulfilling prophecy.

12 recapture v. / n. re-CAP-ture · /riːˈkæptʃər/ (탈환(하다), 되찾다)

COLLOCATIONS recapture a city · recapture the feeling · attempt the recapture of

IN THE STORY Jones and his men come with sticks and a gun to take the farm back.

- The army recaptured the town after a long battle.
- The film tries to recapture the magic of the original.

13 ambush n. / v. AM-bush · /ˈæmbʊʃ/ (매복, 기습 / 매복 공격하다)

COLLOCATIONS lie in ambush · walk into an ambush · be ambushed

IN THE STORY The horses, cows and pigs hide in the cowshed, ready to attack.

- The soldiers walked straight into an ambush.
- The journalists ambushed the actor outside his hotel.

14 retreat n. / v. re-TREAT · /rɪˈtriːt/ (후퇴 / 후퇴하다)

COLLOCATIONS beat a retreat · in full retreat · retreat to

IN THE STORY Snowball's squeal is the signal for the animals to fall back.

- The enemy was forced to retreat.
- After the argument, he retreated to his room.

CHAPTER 4

Vocabulary (continued)

15 spectacle n. SPEC-ta-cle · /ˈspektəkəl/ (광경, 구경거리)

COLLOCATIONS a terrifying spectacle · make a spectacle of oneself · a grand spectacle

IN THE STORY The most frightening sight is Boxer rearing up on his hind legs.

- The fireworks were a magnificent spectacle.
- Please don't make a spectacle of yourself at the party.

16 vengeance n. VEN-geance · /ˈvendʒəns/ (복수)

COLLOCATIONS take vengeance on · seek vengeance · with a vengeance

IN THE STORY Every animal pays the men back in its own way.

- The hero swore to take vengeance on his father's killer.
- The rain came back with a vengeance.

17 ignominious adj. ig-no-MIN-i-ous · /ˌɪgnəˈmɪniəs/ (수치스러운, 굴욕적인)

COLLOCATIONS an ignominious defeat · ignominious retreat · ignominious end

IN THE STORY Within five minutes, the men run away in shame.

- The champion suffered an ignominious defeat in the first round.
- His career came to an ignominious end.

18 sentimentality n. sen-ti-men-TAL-i-ty · /ˌsentɪmenˈtæləti/ (감상주의, 지나친 감상)

COLLOCATIONS no sentimentality · without sentimentality · cheap sentimentality

IN THE STORY Snowball tells Boxer there is no room for soft feelings in war.

- The film avoids cheap sentimentality.
- She threw out the old letters without sentimentality.

19 impromptu adj. im-PROMPT-u · /ɪmˈprɑːmptuː/ (즉석의, 즉흥적인)

COLLOCATIONS an impromptu speech · impromptu party · impromptu performance

IN THE STORY A victory celebration is held right away, without planning.

- He gave an impromptu speech at his sister's wedding.
- We had an impromptu picnic in the park.

20 posthumously adv. POST-hu-mous-ly · /ˈpɑːstʃəməsli/ (사후에, 죽은 뒤에)

COLLOCATIONS awarded posthumously · published posthumously

IN THE STORY The dead sheep receives a medal after her death.

- The soldier was awarded a medal posthumously.
- Her final novel was published posthumously.

CHAPTER 4

Practice: Fill in the Blank

Choose the best word to complete each sentence about Chapter 4. Watch the form of the word (-ed, -s, -ly).

1. Jones told everyone in the pub how unfairly he had been treated; he talked endlessly about the _____.

(a) prophecy (b) ambush (c) spectacle (d) injustice

2. The other farmers saw Jones's bad luck, or _____, as a chance for themselves.

(a) prophecy (b) misfortune (c) retreat (d) scorn

3. Frederick was clever and hard to cheat in business; he was very _____.

(a) humble (b) shrewd (c) impromptu (d) distorted

4. At first the farmers treated the idea of an animal-run farm with _____.

(a) vengeance (b) scorn (c) ambush (d) rumour

5. The farmers refused to _____ the new name and kept using the old one.

(a) abolish (b) retreat (c) tolerate (d) recapture

6. Later the farmers claimed that terrible _____ was happening on the farm.

(a) wickedness (b) prophecy (c) sentimentality (d) spectacle

7. Stories, or _____, about the animals' farm spread from village to village.

(a) retreats (b) ambushes (c) rumours (d) spectacles

8. By the time the stories reached other farms, they were twisted and _____.

(a) posthumous (b) impromptu (c) distorted (d) shrewd

9. The humans pretended that the animals' song was worthless and _____.

(a) contemptible (b) shrewd (c) posthumous (d) impromptu

10. No punishment could stop the song; it was _____.

(a) irrepressible (b) shrewd (c) contemptible (d) distorted

Practice (continued)

11. The song frightened humans because it seemed like a _____ of their fall.
(a) retreat (b) sentimentality (c) prophecy (d) tolerance

12. Jones and his men came with sticks and a gun to _____ the farm.
(a) ambush (b) recapture (c) retreat (d) tolerate

13. Some animals hid in the cowshed, waiting in _____.
(a) retreat (b) scorn (c) ambush (d) triumph

14. When Snowball gave the signal, the animals pretended to run away in _____.
(a) prophecy (b) vengeance (c) retreat (d) ambush

15. Boxer standing on his back legs and kicking was a frightening _____.
(a) spectacle (b) prophecy (c) rumour (d) misfortune

16. After years of cruelty, the animals wanted _____.
(a) scorn (b) vengeance (c) sentimentality (d) retreat

17. The men ran off in an _____ defeat, chased by geese.
(a) irrepressible (b) shrewd (c) impromptu (d) ignominious

18. Snowball told Boxer that war leaves no room for _____ or tears.
(a) vengeance (b) sentimentality (c) wickedness (d) injustice

19. The animals held an _____ party right after the battle.
(a) contemptible (b) ignominious (c) distorted (d) impromptu

20. The sheep that died in the battle was given a medal _____.
(a) posthumously (b) irrepressibly (c) contemptibly (d) shrewdly

CHAPTER 4

Let's Talk

Pick two questions. Try to use at least one word from this chapter in your answer.

1. The neighbouring farmers spread frightening rumours about Animal Farm. Why do people spread rumours about groups they fear?

2. Boxer feels terrible about the stable-lad, but Snowball says feelings don't matter in war. Whose reaction do you agree with?

3. Mollie hides during the battle. Is it fair to judge her for that?

4. The animals create medals and a holiday for the battle. Why do groups create ceremonies and awards?

5. Snowball plans the battle using an old book about Julius Caesar. What book or person has taught you something you actually used in real life?

ANSWER KEY

1. (d) injustice
2. (b) misfortune
3. (b) shrewd
4. (b) scorn
5. (c) tolerate
6. (a) wickedness
7. (c) rumours
8. (c) distorted
9. (a) contemptible
10. (a) irrepressible
11. (c) prophecy
12. (b) recapture
13. (c) ambush
14. (c) retreat
15. (a) spectacle
16. (b) vengeance
17. (d) ignominious
18. (b) sentimentality
19. (d) impromptu
20. (a) posthumously

CHAPTER 5

The Windmill and the Dogs

SUMMARY

Mollie leaves for a human farm, and the rivalry between Snowball and Napoleon grows, above all over Snowball's plan to build a windmill. Just before the vote, Napoleon calls in nine fierce dogs, the puppies he secretly raised, and they chase Snowball off the farm for good. Napoleon ends the Sunday debates, and a few weeks later Squealer explains that the windmill will be built after all, and that it was Napoleon's idea all along.

NEW FACES

Minimus	a pig with a gift for writing songs and poems

WORDS IN THIS CHAPTER

troublesome · pretext · whereabouts · ratify · dispute · canvass · innovation · bide · controversy · unintelligible · aloof · faction · procure · advocate · eloquence · menacing · dismayed · articulate · obedience · tactics

CHAPTER 5

Vocabulary

01 troublesome adj. TROU-ble-some · /ˈtrʌbəlsəm/ (골칫거리인, 성가신)

COLLOCATIONS a troublesome child · troublesome problem · become troublesome

IN THE STORY As winter comes, Mollie is late, lazy and full of excuses.

- The printer has been troublesome all week.
- A troublesome cough kept me awake at night.

02 pretext n. PRE-text · /ˈpriːtekst/ (구실, 핑계)

COLLOCATIONS on the pretext of · under a pretext · a pretext for

IN THE STORY Mollie uses every kind of excuse to run away from work.

- He left early on the pretext of a headache.
- The small incident became a pretext for war.

03 whereabouts n. WHERE-a-bouts · /ˈwerəbaʊts/ (행방, 소재)

COLLOCATIONS the whereabouts of · unknown whereabouts · know someone's whereabouts

IN THE STORY For weeks, nobody knows where Mollie has gone.

- Police are asking about the whereabouts of the missing man.
- The painting's whereabouts remain a mystery.

04 ratify v. RAT-i-fy · /ˈrætɪfaɪ/ (비준하다, 승인하다)

COLLOCATIONS ratify a treaty · ratify a decision · be ratified by

IN THE STORY The pigs make decisions, but a majority vote must approve them.

- Both countries ratified the peace treaty.
- The new rules must be ratified by the members.

05 dispute n. dis-PUTE · /dɪˈspjuːt/ (논쟁, 분쟁)

COLLOCATIONS a dispute over · settle a dispute · in dispute

IN THE STORY Snowball and Napoleon argue at every possible point.

- The neighbours had a long dispute over the fence.
- Lawyers helped settle the dispute.

06 canvass v. CAN-vass · /ˈkænvəs/ ((지지를) 호소하다, 선거운동하다)

COLLOCATIONS canvass support · canvass votes · canvass opinion

IN THE STORY Between Meetings, Napoleon quietly wins animals over to his side.

- Volunteers canvassed votes door to door.
- We canvassed opinion before changing the menu.

07 innovation n. in-no-VA-tion · /ˌɪnəˈveɪʃən/ (혁신, 새로운 것)

COLLOCATIONS technological innovation · encourage innovation · a major innovation

IN THE STORY Snowball is full of new ideas for improving the farm.

- The smartphone was a major innovation.
- The company rewards innovation and creativity.

CHAPTER 5

Vocabulary (continued)

08 bide v. BIDE · /baɪd/ (기다리다 (bide one's time: 때를 기다리다))

COLLOCATIONS bide one's time

IN THE STORY Napoleon offers no plans of his own and quietly waits for his chance.

- The cat bided its time, watching the bird.
- She bided her time until the right job came along.

09 controversy n. CON-tro-ver-sy · /ˈkɑːntrəvɜːrsi/ (논란, 논쟁)

COLLOCATIONS cause controversy · a heated controversy · controversy over

IN THE STORY The windmill becomes the bitterest argument of all.

- The new law caused a lot of controversy.
- The film is at the centre of a heated controversy.

10 unintelligible adj. un-in-TEL-li-gi-ble · /ˌʌnɪnˈtelɪdʒəbəl/ (이해할 수 없는)

COLLOCATIONS completely unintelligible · unintelligible speech · unintelligible to

IN THE STORY The other animals cannot understand Snowball's drawings at all.

- The announcement at the station was unintelligible.
- His handwriting is almost unintelligible.

11 aloof adj. a-LOOF · /əˈluːf/ (냉담한, 거리를 두는)

COLLOCATIONS hold aloof · remain aloof · seem aloof

IN THE STORY Only Napoleon keeps his distance from the windmill plans.

- The new manager seemed cold and aloof.
- He held aloof from office gossip.

12 faction n. FAC-tion · /ˈfækʃən/ (파벌, 당파)

COLLOCATIONS rival factions · split into factions · a faction of

IN THE STORY The animals divide into two groups, each with its own slogan.

- The party split into two rival factions.
- A small faction refused to accept the result.

13 procure v. pro-CURE · /prəˈkjʊr/ (구하다, 조달하다)

COLLOCATIONS procure supplies · procure funding · difficult to procure

IN THE STORY Napoleon says the animals must get guns and learn to use them.

- The hospital struggled to procure enough masks.
- Tickets were almost impossible to procure.

14 advocate v. AD-vo-cate · /ˈædvəkeɪt/ (옹호하다, 지지하다)

COLLOCATIONS advocate change · strongly advocate · advocate for

IN THE STORY Snowball stands up and argues for building the windmill.

- Doctors advocate regular exercise.
- She advocates for better working conditions.

CHAPTER 5

Vocabulary (continued)

15 eloquence n. EL-o-quence · /ˈeləkwəns/ (웅변, 유창함)

COLLOCATIONS great eloquence · speak with eloquence · the eloquence of

IN THE STORY Snowball's powerful speaking wins the animals over.

- The lawyer spoke with great eloquence.
- We were moved by the eloquence of her letter.

16 menacing adj. MEN-ac-ing · /ˈmenəsɪŋ/ (위협적인)

COLLOCATIONS a menacing look · menacing growl · menacing tone

IN THE STORY The dogs growl threateningly, and the young pigs fall silent.

- Dark, menacing clouds gathered over the sea.
- He spoke in a quiet but menacing tone.

17 dismayed adj. dis-MAYED · /dɪsˈmeɪd/ (당황한, 실망한)

COLLOCATIONS dismayed by · dismayed to find · deeply dismayed

IN THE STORY The animals are upset when Napoleon ends the debates.

- We were dismayed to find the museum closed.
- Fans were dismayed by the team's poor performance.

18 articulate adj. ar-TIC-u-late · /ɑːrˈtɪkjələt/ (생각을 분명히 표현하는, 똑똑히 말하는)

COLLOCATIONS an articulate speaker · highly articulate · articulate young woman

IN THE STORY A few young pigs can express their objections, but they are silenced.

- She is an articulate and confident speaker.
- Even at five, he was surprisingly articulate.

19 obedience n. o-BE-di-ence · /oʊˈbiːdiəns/ (복종, 순종)

COLLOCATIONS blind obedience · obedience to · obedience training

IN THE STORY Squealer says following orders matters more than being brave.

- The dog went to obedience classes.
- The army demands strict obedience to orders.

20 tactics n. TAC-tics · /ˈtæktɪks/ (전술, 작전)

COLLOCATIONS change tactics · scare tactics · clever tactics

IN THE STORY Squealer says Napoleon only pretended to oppose the windmill as a clever move.

- The coach changed tactics in the second half.
- The company used scare tactics to sell insurance.

CHAPTER 5

Practice: Fill in the Blank

Choose the best word to complete each sentence about Chapter 5. Watch the form of the word (-ed, -s, -ly).

1. Mollie caused problems all winter; she was a _____ worker.
(a) articulate (b) troublesome (c) unintelligible (d) obedient

2. Mollie always had an excuse, or _____, to stop working.
(a) controversy (b) eloquence (c) faction (d) pretext

3. No one knew Mollie's _____ until the pigeons saw her in town.
(a) tactics (b) pretext (c) whereabouts (d) obedience

4. The other animals had to vote to _____ the pigs' decisions.
(a) procure (b) advocate (c) canvass (d) ratify

5. Snowball and Napoleon could not agree on anything, so there were constant _____.
(a) innovations (b) pretexts (c) whereabouts (d) disputes

6. Napoleon quietly went around _____ for votes.
(a) ratifying (b) canvassing (c) biding (d) procuring

7. Snowball loved new ideas and _____ for the farm.
(a) disputes (b) innovations (c) factions (d) pretexts

8. Napoleon said little and waited; he was _____ his time.
(a) procuring (b) biding (c) canvassing (d) advocating

9. The windmill became the biggest _____ on the farm.
(a) pretext (b) tactic (c) innovation (d) controversy

10. The other animals could not understand the drawings; they were _____ to them.
(a) articulate (b) troublesome (c) unintelligible (d) menacing

Practice (continued)

11. Napoleon stayed _____ and showed no interest in the plans.
(a) dismayed (b) articulate (c) troublesome (d) aloof

12. The farm divided into two _____ over the windmill.
(a) pretexts (b) innovations (c) factions (d) tactics

13. Napoleon said they should _____ guns to defend the farm.
(a) procure (b) canvass (c) ratify (d) bide

14. Snowball spoke in favour of the windmill; he _____ it strongly.
(a) ratified (b) canvassed (c) procured (d) advocated

15. Snowball spoke so beautifully that his _____ won over the crowd.
(a) eloquence (b) pretext (c) dispute (d) obedience

16. The dogs growled in a _____ way, and the young pigs sat down.
(a) articulate (b) menacing (c) dismayed (d) aloof

17. The animals were _____ when they heard there would be no more debates.
(a) dismayed (b) articulate (c) menacing (d) aloof

18. A few young pigs were _____ enough to object out loud.
(a) articulate (b) troublesome (c) obedient (d) unintelligible

19. Squealer told the animals that following orders, or _____, mattered most.
(a) controversy (b) eloquence (c) innovation (d) obedience

20. Squealer said Napoleon's change of mind was a clever plan, part of his _____.
(a) disputes (b) pretexts (c) factions (d) tactics

CHAPTER 5

Let's Talk

Pick two questions. Try to use at least one word from this chapter in your answer.

1. Snowball has big ideas, while Napoleon says little but builds support quietly. Which kind of person usually wins in real life?

2. The animals always agree with whoever is speaking at the moment. Has this ever happened to you in a meeting or discussion?

3. Mollie leaves the farm for sugar and ribbons. Is she a traitor, or just honest about what she wants?

4. Napoleon ends the Sunday debates. What is lost when a group stops discussing things openly?

5. Squealer says the windmill was Napoleon's idea all along. Have you seen someone take credit for another person's idea? How did others react?

ANSWER KEY

1. (b) troublesome
2. (d) pretext
3. (c) whereabouts
4. (d) ratify
5. (d) disputes
6. (b) canvassing
7. (b) innovations
8. (b) biding
9. (d) controversy
10. (c) unintelligible
11. (d) aloof
12. (c) factions
13. (a) procure
14. (d) advocated
15. (a) eloquence
16. (b) menacing
17. (a) dismayed
18. (a) articulate
19. (d) obedience
20. (d) tactics

CHAPTER 6

Trade and the Fallen Windmill

SUMMARY

The animals work like slaves on the windmill, with Boxer doing more than anyone, and food and supplies start to run short. Napoleon begins trading with humans through a solicitor, Mr. Whymper, and the pigs move into the farmhouse; when animals remember rules against this, Squealer convinces them they are mistaken. In November a storm knocks down the half-built windmill, and Napoleon blames Snowball and sentences him to death.

NEW FACES

Mr. Whymper	a sly solicitor who acts as Napoleon's go-between with the human world

WORDS IN THIS CHAPTER

sacrifice · voluntary · foresee · utilise · boulder · accumulate · admiration · extravagant · shortage · commercial · uneasiness · intermediary · reconcile · prosper · bankrupt · residence · repose · ruins · traitor · indignation

CHAPTER 6

Vocabulary

01 sacrifice n. / v. SAC-ri-fice · /ˈsækrɪfaɪs/ (희생 / 희생하다)

COLLOCATIONS make sacrifices · sacrifice time · at great sacrifice

IN THE STORY The animals give every effort gladly, believing it is for themselves.

- Parents make many sacrifices for their children.
- She sacrificed her weekends to finish the project.

02 voluntary adj. VOL-un-tar-y · /ˈvɑːlənteri/ (자발적인)

COLLOCATIONS strictly voluntary · voluntary work · on a voluntary basis

IN THE STORY Sunday work is called optional, but skipping it halves your food.

- Attendance at the meeting is voluntary.
- He does voluntary work at the animal shelter.

03 foresee v. fore-SEE · /fɔːrˈsiː/ (예견하다)

COLLOCATIONS foresee problems · difficult to foresee · as foreseen

IN THE STORY It is already clear that the coming winter will be hard.

- Nobody could foresee how popular the game would become.
- We didn't foresee any problems with the plan.

04 utilise v. U-ti-lize · /ˈjuːtəlaɪz/ (활용하다 (美 utilize))

COLLOCATIONS utilise resources · fully utilise · utilise space

IN THE STORY Someone finally thinks of using gravity to break the stone.

- The new design utilises every corner of the room.
- We need to utilise our time more wisely.

05 boulder n. BOUL-der · /ˈboʊldər/ (큰 바위)

COLLOCATIONS a huge boulder · roll a boulder · boulders fell

IN THE STORY The animals drag huge rocks up the slope and push them over the edge.

- A huge boulder blocked the mountain road.
- The children climbed on the boulders by the river.

06 accumulate v. ac-CU-mu-late · /əˈkjuːmjəleɪt/ (쌓이다, 축적하다)

COLLOCATIONS accumulate wealth · dust accumulates · accumulate experience

IN THE STORY By late summer, enough stone has piled up to start building.

- Dust accumulates quickly in this room.
- Over the years she accumulated a large collection of books.

07 admiration n. ad-mi-RA-tion · /ˌædməˈreɪʃən/ (감탄, 존경)

COLLOCATIONS with admiration · full of admiration · admiration for

IN THE STORY Everyone is amazed by Boxer's strength as he pulls the stones.

- I have great admiration for nurses.
- The crowd watched the dancers with admiration.

CHAPTER 6

Vocabulary (continued)

08 extravagant adj. ex-TRAV-a-gant · /ɪkˈstrævəgənt/ (낭비하는, 사치스러운)

COLLOCATIONS an extravagant lifestyle · extravagant spending · extravagant claims

IN THE STORY The animals no longer have to feed five wasteful humans.

- They threw an extravagant party for their anniversary.
- Don't be extravagant; we need to save money.

09 shortage n. SHORT-age · /ˈʃɔːrtɪdʒ/ (부족)

COLLOCATIONS a shortage of · water shortage · severe shortage

IN THE STORY Nails, oil and seeds start to run out.

- There is a shortage of nurses in many hospitals.
- The drought caused a severe water shortage.

10 commercial adj. com-MER-cial · /kəˈmɜːrʃəl/ (상업적인)

COLLOCATIONS commercial purposes · commercial success · commercial area

IN THE STORY Napoleon claims the trading is not for making profit.

- The film was a huge commercial success.
- This photo cannot be used for commercial purposes.

11 uneasiness n. un-EAS-i-ness · /ʌnˈiːzinəs/ (불안, 꺼림칙함)

COLLOCATIONS a vague uneasiness · feel uneasiness · growing uneasiness

IN THE STORY The animals feel vaguely troubled; they remember rules against trading.

- There was a growing uneasiness among the staff.
- I couldn't explain my uneasiness about the deal.

12 intermediary n. in-ter-ME-di-ar-y · /ˌɪntərˈmiːdieri/ (중개인, 중재자)

COLLOCATIONS act as an intermediary · through an intermediary

IN THE STORY Mr. Whymper becomes the go-between for the farm and the outside world.

- A lawyer acted as an intermediary in the sale.
- The two countries talked through an intermediary.

13 reconcile v. REC-on-cile · /ˈrekənsaɪl/ ((받아들이게) 하다, 화해시키다)

COLLOCATIONS be reconciled to · reconcile with · reconcile differences

IN THE STORY Seeing Napoleon give orders to a human makes the animals accept the change.

- She slowly reconciled herself to living alone.
- The brothers were finally reconciled after years of silence.

14 prosper v. PROS-per · /ˈprɑːspər/ (번영하다, 번창하다)

COLLOCATIONS business prospers · prosper under · help someone prosper

IN THE STORY The humans hate the farm even more now that it is doing well.

- The town prospered after the railway arrived.
- Small businesses prosper when customers shop locally.

CHAPTER 6

Vocabulary (continued)

15 bankrupt adj. BANK-rupt · /ˈbæŋkrʌpt/ (파산한)

COLLOCATIONS go bankrupt · declare oneself bankrupt · morally bankrupt

IN THE STORY Every human believes the farm will soon run out of money.

- The airline went bankrupt last year.
- After the crash, many investors were bankrupt.

16 residence n. RES-i-dence · /ˈrezɪdəns/ (거주(지), 주택)

COLLOCATIONS take up residence · official residence · place of residence

IN THE STORY The pigs move into the farmhouse to live.

- The White House is the president's official residence.
- Please write your place of residence on the form.

17 repose n. re-POSE · /rɪˈpoʊz/ (휴식, 안식)

COLLOCATIONS in repose · rob someone of repose · peaceful repose

IN THE STORY Squealer asks if the animals would deny the pigs their rest.

- Her face looked calm in repose.
- After the long journey, we needed some repose.

18 ruins n. RU-ins · /ˈruːɪnz/ (폐허, 잔해 (in ruins: 무너진))

COLLOCATIONS in ruins · ancient ruins · lie in ruins

IN THE STORY After the storm, the windmill lies in pieces.

- We visited the ancient ruins of a Roman city.
- After the scandal, his career was in ruins.

19 traitor n. TRAI-tor · /ˈtreɪtər/ (반역자, 배신자)

COLLOCATIONS a traitor to · be branded a traitor · call someone a traitor

IN THE STORY Napoleon calls Snowball an enemy who has betrayed the farm.

- The spy was executed as a traitor.
- His friends called him a traitor for joining the rival team.

20 indignation n. in-dig-NA-tion · /ˌɪndɪgˈneɪʃən/ (분개, 분노)

COLLOCATIONS a cry of indignation · moral indignation · in indignation

IN THE STORY The animals cry out in anger when they hear Snowball is to blame.

- The unfair decision caused public indignation.
- She left the room in indignation.

CHAPTER 6

Practice: Fill in the Blank

Choose the best word to complete each sentence about Chapter 6. Watch the form of the word (-ed, -s, -ly).

1. The animals gave up rest and comfort; no _____ seemed too big for the windmill.
(a) shortage (b) sacrifice (c) repose (d) residence

2. Sunday work was said to be _____, but animals who skipped it got less food.
(a) voluntary (b) bankrupt (c) commercial (d) extravagant

3. The animals could _____ that food would be short in winter.
(a) prosper (b) utilise (c) reconcile (d) foresee

4. The animals learned to _____ gravity by dropping stones from a height.
(a) reconcile (b) utilise (c) accumulate (d) foresee

5. The rocks were too big to move easily; the animals pulled the _____ with ropes.
(a) traitors (b) ruins (c) shortages (d) boulders

6. Over the summer, a large pile of stone slowly _____.
(a) prospered (b) foresaw (c) reconciled (d) accumulated

7. Boxer's strength amazed everyone; they watched him with _____.
(a) admiration (b) indignation (c) repose (d) uneasiness

8. Feeding only themselves, not wasteful and _____ humans, saved a lot.
(a) commercial (b) bankrupt (c) voluntary (d) extravagant

9. Soon there were _____ of things the farm could not make, like nails.
(a) shortages (b) sacrifices (c) boulders (d) ruins

10. Napoleon insisted the trade was not about making money or for _____ reasons.
(a) extravagant (b) voluntary (c) commercial (d) bankrupt

Practice (continued)

11. Many animals felt a quiet _____ about trading with humans.
(a) residence (b) repose (c) uneasiness (d) admiration

12. Mr. Whymper became the _____ who handled the farm's business with humans.
(a) residence (b) traitor (c) boulder (d) intermediary

13. Seeing Napoleon give orders to a human helped _____ the animals to the plan.
(a) utilise (b) foresee (c) reconcile (d) accumulate

14. The farm was doing well; it was starting to _____.
(a) reconcile (b) accumulate (c) foresee (d) prosper

15. The humans were sure the farm would soon run out of money and go _____.
(a) bankrupt (b) commercial (c) voluntary (d) extravagant

16. The pigs moved into the farmhouse and made it their _____.
(a) repose (b) shortage (c) residence (d) ruins

17. Squealer said the pigs needed comfortable beds for their _____ after so much brainwork.
(a) admiration (b) repose (c) sacrifice (d) residence

18. The storm knocked down the windmill, leaving it in _____.
(a) ruins (b) shortages (c) repose (d) residence

19. Napoleon blamed Snowball for the damage and called him a _____.
(a) intermediary (b) residence (c) boulder (d) traitor

20. The animals were angry; they were filled with _____ at Snowball.
(a) repose (b) indignation (c) uneasiness (d) admiration

CHAPTER 6

Let's Talk

Pick two questions. Try to use at least one word from this chapter in your answer.

1. The animals work sixty hours a week but still feel happy. Can people be happy while being overworked? Why?

2. Squealer asks whether the rule against trading is written down anywhere. Why are written records so important in this chapter?

3. One commandment now seems to say something slightly different. Would you have noticed the change? What would you do if you did?

4. Napoleon blames Snowball for the fallen windmill without real proof. Why is it useful for a leader to have an enemy to blame?

5. Benjamin keeps saying that donkeys live a long time. What do you think he really means?

ANSWER KEY

1. (b) sacrifice
2. (a) voluntary
3. (d) foresee
4. (b) utilise
5. (d) boulders
6. (d) accumulated
7. (a) admiration
8. (d) extravagant
9. (a) shortages
10. (c) commercial
11. (c) uneasiness
12. (d) intermediary
13. (c) reconcile
14. (d) prosper
15. (a) bankrupt
16. (c) residence
17. (b) repose
18. (a) ruins
19. (d) traitor
20. (b) indignation

CHAPTER 7

Confessions

SUMMARY

During a cruel winter, food runs short, and Napoleon tricks Mr. Whymper into reporting that all is well; when the hens resist giving up their eggs, he starves them into surrender. Every problem on the farm is now blamed on Snowball, and Squealer claims Snowball was Jones's secret agent from the start. At a terrible meeting, animals confess to working with Snowball and are killed by the dogs, and afterwards 'Beasts of England' is banned.

WORDS IN THIS CHAPTER

spite · drastically · starvation · famine · deceive · escort · surrender · thwart · ruthlessly · capitulate · attribute · league · investigation · stupefied · categorically · lurk · cower · confess · retribution · mournfully

CHAPTER 7

Vocabulary

01 spite n. SPITE · /spaɪt/ (악의, 앙심 (in spite of: ~에도 불구하고))

COLLOCATIONS out of spite · in spite of · pure spite

IN THE STORY Out of ill will, humans say the windmill fell because the walls were thin.

- He broke her pen out of spite.
- In spite of the rain, we enjoyed the trip.

02 drastically adv. DRAS-ti-cal-ly · /ˈdræstɪkli/ (대폭, 급격하게)

COLLOCATIONS drastically reduce · change drastically · drastically different

IN THE STORY The corn ration is cut sharply in January.

- Prices have risen drastically this year.
- Her life changed drastically after moving abroad.

03 starvation n. star-VA-tion · /stɑːrˈveɪʃən/ (굶주림, 기아)

COLLOCATIONS die of starvation · face starvation · starvation wages

IN THE STORY With only chaff to eat, the animals seem close to starving.

- Thousands faced starvation after the harvest failed.
- Workers complained about their starvation wages.

04 famine n. FAM-ine · /ˈfæmɪn/ (기근)

COLLOCATIONS a severe famine · famine relief · suffer from famine

IN THE STORY Humans spread stories that the animals are dying of hunger and disease.

- The famine killed millions of people.
- The charity raises money for famine relief.

05 deceive v. de-CEIVE · /dɪˈsiːv/ (속이다)

COLLOCATIONS deceive someone into · be deceived by · deceive oneself

IN THE STORY Napoleon fills the bins with sand to fool Mr. Whymper.

- Don't be deceived by his friendly smile.
- She deceived herself into thinking everything was fine.

06 escort n. / v. ES-cort · /ˈeskɔːrt/ (호위(대) / 호위하다)

COLLOCATIONS a police escort · under escort · escort someone to

IN THE STORY Napoleon now appears only with six guard dogs around him.

- The president travelled with a police escort.
- A guide escorted us to the exit.

07 surrender v. / n. sur-REN-der · /səˈrendər/ (내주다, 항복하다 / 항복)

COLLOCATIONS surrender one's weapons · refuse to surrender · unconditional surrender

IN THE STORY The hens are told they must give up their eggs.

- The soldiers refused to surrender.
- Please surrender your phone before the exam.

CHAPTER 7

Vocabulary (continued)

08 thwart v. THWART · /θwɔːrt/ (좌절시키다, 방해하다)

COLLOCATIONS thwart a plan · be thwarted by · thwart an attempt

IN THE STORY The hens try to stop Napoleon's plan by smashing their eggs.

- Police thwarted the robbery.
- Bad weather thwarted our plans for a picnic.

09 ruthlessly adv. RUTH-less-ly · /ˈruːθləsli/ (무자비하게)

COLLOCATIONS act ruthlessly · ruthlessly efficient · ruthlessly cut

IN THE STORY Napoleon stops the hens' food and acts without mercy.

- The new boss ruthlessly cut costs.
- The dictator ruthlessly crushed all opposition.

10 capitulate v. ca-PIT-u-late · /kəˈpɪtʃəleɪt/ (굴복하다, 항복하다)

COLLOCATIONS capitulate to · finally capitulate · refuse to capitulate

IN THE STORY After five days, the hens give in and return to their nests.

- The government capitulated to the protesters' demands.
- My parents finally capitulated and bought me a dog.

11 attribute v. at-TRIB-ute · /əˈtrɪbjuːt/ (~의 탓(덕분)으로 돌리다)

COLLOCATIONS attribute A to B · be attributed to · widely attributed

IN THE STORY Whenever anything goes wrong, Snowball is blamed.

- She attributes her success to hard work.
- The quote is often attributed to Einstein.

12 league n. LEAGUE · /liːg/ (연맹 (in league with: ~와 결탁한))

COLLOCATIONS in league with · a football league · out of one's league

IN THE STORY Even the rats are said to be working secretly with Snowball.

- The police suspected the guard was in league with the thieves.
- Our team finished third in the league.

13 investigation n. in-ves-ti-GA-tion · /ɪnˌvestɪˈgeɪʃən/ (조사, 수사)

COLLOCATIONS a full investigation · under investigation · carry out an investigation

IN THE STORY Napoleon orders a full search for signs of Snowball.

- The police launched an investigation into the fire.
- The company is under investigation for fraud.

14 stupefied adj. STU-pe-fied · /ˈstuːpɪfaɪd/ (망연자실한, 어리둥절한)

COLLOCATIONS be stupefied by · stupefied silence

IN THE STORY The animals are stunned to hear that Snowball was Jones's agent.

- We were stupefied by the size of the bill.
- He sat in stupefied silence after hearing the news.

CHAPTER 7

Vocabulary (continued)

15 categorically adv. cat-e-GOR-i-cal-ly · /ˌkætəˈgɔːrɪkli/ (단호하게, 절대적으로)

COLLOCATIONS categorically deny · state categorically · categorically refuse

IN THE STORY Squealer says Napoleon has stated it firmly, with no doubt at all.

- The minister categorically denied the rumours.
- I can state categorically that I was not there.

16 lurk v. LURK · /lɜːrk/ (숨어 있다, 도사리다)

COLLOCATIONS lurk in the shadows · danger lurks · lurk behind

IN THE STORY Squealer warns that Snowball's secret agents may be hiding among them.

- A man was lurking in the shadows near the door.
- Danger lurks behind every corner in this game.

17 cower v. COW-er · /ˈkaʊər/ ((겁에 질려) 움츠리다)

COLLOCATIONS cower in fear · cower behind · cower in a corner

IN THE STORY Sensing something terrible, the animals crouch silently in fear.

- The puppy cowered under the table during the storm.
- The children cowered behind their mother.

18 confess v. con-FESS · /kənˈfes/ (자백하다, 고백하다)

COLLOCATIONS confess to · confess one's crimes · I must confess

IN THE STORY Four pigs admit to secret contact with Snowball.

- He confessed to stealing the money.
- I must confess I've never read the book.

19 retribution n. ret-ri-BU-tion · /ˌretrɪˈbjuːʃən/ (응징, 보복)

COLLOCATIONS fear of retribution · divine retribution · in retribution for

IN THE STORY The animals are shocked by the cruel punishment they have seen.

- Witnesses were afraid of retribution.
- The attack was in retribution for an earlier raid.

20 mournfully adv. MOURN-ful-ly · /ˈmɔːrnfəli/ (구슬프게, 슬프게)

COLLOCATIONS sing mournfully · look mournfully · howl mournfully

IN THE STORY The animals sing their old song slowly and sadly.

- The dog looked mournfully at the empty bowl.
- Wind howled mournfully through the trees.

CHAPTER 7

Practice: Fill in the Blank

Choose the best word to complete each sentence about Chapter 7. Watch the form of the word (-ed, -s, -ly).

1. The jealous humans said bad things about the windmill out of _____.
(a) retribution (b) spite (c) escort (d) famine

2. Food became scarce, and the corn ration was cut _____.
(a) drastically (b) mournfully (c) categorically (d) timidly

3. With almost nothing to eat, the animals were close to _____.
(a) starvation (b) escort (c) retribution (d) investigation

4. Humans spread stories that the animals were suffering from _____.
(a) escort (b) spite (c) famine (d) league

5. Napoleon used bins filled with sand to _____ Mr. Whymper.
(a) deceive (b) lurk (c) surrender (d) cower

6. Napoleon rarely appeared, and only with an _____ of dogs.
(a) escort (b) investigation (c) famine (d) league

7. Napoleon ordered the hens to _____ their eggs for sale.
(a) attribute (b) lurk (c) surrender (d) deceive

8. The hens tried to _____ Napoleon by breaking their own eggs.
(a) capitulate (b) thwart (c) cower (d) confess

9. Napoleon showed no mercy; he dealt with the hens _____.
(a) ruthlessly (b) mournfully (c) timidly (d) cheerfully

10. Hungry and weak, the hens finally _____.
(a) thwarted (b) lurked (c) deceived (d) capitulated

Practice (continued)

11. Every broken window or lost key was _____ to Snowball.
(a) deceived (b) confessed (c) surrendered (d) attributed

12. Even the rats were suspected of being in _____ with Snowball.
(a) famine (b) escort (c) league (d) spite

13. Napoleon sniffed around the whole farm as part of his _____.
(a) retribution (b) famine (c) escort (d) investigation

14. The animals were _____ by the shocking news about Snowball.
(a) ruthless (b) stupefied (c) categorical (d) drastic

15. Squealer said, firmly and _____, that Napoleon could not be wrong.
(a) timidly (b) categorically (c) mournfully (d) cheerfully

16. Squealer warned that hidden enemies might be _____ on the farm.
(a) cowering (b) capitulating (c) confessing (d) lurking

17. Afraid of what was coming, the animals _____ in their places.
(a) cowered (b) thwarted (c) lurked (d) deceived

18. Several animals _____ to crimes they may never have committed.
(a) thwarted (b) deceived (c) confessed (d) surrendered

19. The animals were horrified by the bloody _____.
(a) retribution (b) spite (c) escort (d) investigation

20. That evening, the animals sang their old song sadly and _____.
(a) drastically (b) mournfully (c) ruthlessly (d) categorically

CHAPTER 7

Let's Talk

Pick two questions. Try to use at least one word from this chapter in your answer.

1. Clover feels this is not the future they worked for, but she can't find the words to say it. Why is it so hard to speak up when something feels wrong?

2. Boxer says the problem must be some fault in themselves. Why do you think he blames himself instead of the leaders?

3. Squealer makes the animals "remember" things that never happened. Can our memories really be changed by what others tell us?

4. The animals' old song is banned. Why would a leader want to ban a song?

5. This is the darkest chapter so far. How did it make you feel as a reader?

ANSWER KEY

1. (b) spite
2. (a) drastically
3. (a) starvation
4. (c) famine
5. (a) deceive
6. (a) escort
7. (c) surrender
8. (b) thwart
9. (a) ruthlessly
10. (d) capitulated
11. (d) attributed
12. (c) league
13. (d) investigation
14. (b) stupefied
15. (b) categorically
16. (d) lurking
17. (a) cowered
18. (c) confessed
19. (a) retribution
20. (b) mournfully

CHAPTER 8

The Battle of the Windmill

SUMMARY

The commandments keep changing, Napoleon is praised for everything, and he plays Pilkington and Frederick against each other before selling the timber to Frederick, who pays with fake banknotes. Frederick's men then attack and blow up the new windmill; the animals drive them off, but many are hurt or killed, and Squealer still calls it a victory. The pigs find whisky in the farmhouse, and soon the rule against alcohol has quietly been changed.

NEW FACES

Pinkeye	a young pig who tastes Napoleon's food in case it is poisoned

WORDS IN THIS CHAPTER

violate · tremendous · retinue · credit · negotiation · jealousy · precaution · impending · rash · bribe · scoundrel · bewilderment · punctually · forgery · conciliatory · sentinel · treacherous · vile · bestow · excess

CHAPTER 8

Vocabulary

01 violate v. VI-o-late · /ˈvaɪəleɪt/ (위반하다, 침해하다)

COLLOCATIONS violate a law · violate rights · violate an agreement

IN THE STORY The animals believe the killings broke the Sixth Commandment, until they reread it.

- The company violated safety rules.
- Reading her diary violated her privacy.

02 tremendous adj. tre-MEN-dous · /trəˈmendəs/ (엄청난, 굉장한)

COLLOCATIONS a tremendous effort · tremendous amount · tremendous success

IN THE STORY Rebuilding the windmill with thicker walls is enormous work.

- Moving house took a tremendous amount of energy.
- The concert was a tremendous success.

03 retinue n. RET-i-nue · /ˈretənuː/ (수행원들, 일행)

COLLOCATIONS a retinue of · with his retinue · royal retinue

IN THE STORY Napoleon appears with a group of dogs and a black cockerel.

- The queen arrived with a large retinue.
- The star travelled with a retinue of assistants.

04 credit n. CRED-it · /ˈkredɪt/ (공로, 인정)

COLLOCATIONS give credit for · take credit for · to one's credit

IN THE STORY Napoleon is thanked for every success, even for good-tasting water.

- She never gets credit for her hard work.
- He took credit for his colleague's idea.

05 negotiation n. ne-go-ti-A-tion · /nɪˌgoʊʃiˈeɪʃən/ (협상)

COLLOCATIONS enter into negotiations · under negotiation · salary negotiation

IN THE STORY Through Whymper, Napoleon bargains with both neighbouring farmers.

- After long negotiations, they signed the contract.
- The price is still under negotiation.

06 jealousy n. JEAL-ous-y · /ˈdʒeləsi/ (질투, 시기)

COLLOCATIONS out of jealousy · feel jealousy · fierce jealousy

IN THE STORY The windmill makes Frederick furiously envious.

- His jealousy ruined their friendship.
- She felt a pang of jealousy when she saw his new car.

07 precaution n. pre-CAU-tion · /prɪˈkɔːʃən/ (예방 조치, 조심)

COLLOCATIONS take precautions · as a precaution · safety precautions

IN THE STORY A young pig tastes Napoleon's food in case of poison.

- Take an umbrella as a precaution.
- The hospital took extra safety precautions.

CHAPTER 8

Vocabulary (continued)

08 impending adj. im-PEND-ing · /ɪmˈpendɪŋ/ (임박한, 곧 닥칠)

COLLOCATIONS impending danger · impending doom · an impending storm

IN THE STORY Rumours of a coming attack grow stronger.

- Birds flew low, sensing the impending storm.
- She had a feeling of impending disaster.

09 rash adj. RASH · /ræʃ/ (성급한, 경솔한)

COLLOCATIONS a rash decision · rash promise · it would be rash to

IN THE STORY Squealer tells the animals not to act too quickly against Frederick.

- Don't make any rash decisions when you're angry.
- It would be rash to quit your job without a plan.

10 bribe v. / n. BRIBE · /braɪb/ (뇌물을 주다 / 뇌물)

COLLOCATIONS bribe an official · accept a bribe · offer a bribe

IN THE STORY Frederick is said to have paid off the police and magistrates.

- He tried to bribe the judge.
- The officer was arrested for accepting bribes.

11 scoundrel n. SCOUN-drel · /ˈskaʊndrəl/ (악당, 불량배)

COLLOCATIONS an old scoundrel · a lying scoundrel

IN THE STORY Napoleon says he would never deal with a villain like Frederick.

- The scoundrel ran off with all their savings.
- In the story, the charming prince turns out to be a scoundrel.

12 bewilderment n. be-WIL-der-ment · /bɪˈwɪldərmənt/ (당혹감, 어리둥절함)

COLLOCATIONS in bewilderment · a look of bewilderment · stare in bewilderment

IN THE STORY Some animals are confused to hear Snowball never received a medal.

- She stared at the instructions in bewilderment.
- There was a look of bewilderment on his face.

13 punctually adv. PUNC-tu-al-ly · /ˈpʌŋktʃuəli/ (정확히 제시간에)

COLLOCATIONS arrive punctually · start punctually · pay punctually

IN THE STORY Despite every difficulty, the windmill is finished exactly on time.

- The train left punctually at nine.
- Please arrive punctually for the interview.

14 forgery n. FOR-ger-y · /ˈfɔːrdʒəri/ (위조(품))

COLLOCATIONS a clever forgery · art forgery · commit forgery

IN THE STORY Frederick's banknotes turn out to be fake.

- The painting in the museum was a forgery.
- He was jailed for forgery.

CHAPTER 8

Vocabulary (continued)

15 conciliatory adj. con-CIL-i-a-to-ry · /kənˈsɪliətɔːri/ (회유하는, 달래는)

COLLOCATIONS a conciliatory tone · conciliatory gesture · conciliatory message

IN THE STORY Napoleon sends a friendly message to Pilkington, hoping for help.

- She spoke in a conciliatory tone after the argument.
- Sending flowers was a conciliatory gesture.

16 sentinel n. SEN-ti-nel · /ˈsentɪnəl/ (보초, 파수꾼)

COLLOCATIONS post sentinels · stand sentinel · a lone sentinel

IN THE STORY Guards are placed at every path leading to the farm.

- Sentinels stood at the castle gate.
- An old oak tree stood like a sentinel on the hill.

17 treacherous adj. TREACH-er-ous · /ˈtretʃərəs/ (배신하는, 위험한)

COLLOCATIONS a treacherous act · treacherous roads · treacherous friend

IN THE STORY After Frederick's betrayal, Napoleon expects the worst.

- Icy roads can be treacherous in winter.
- His treacherous friend sold their secret.

18 vile adj. VILE · /vaɪl/ (비열한, 끔찍한)

COLLOCATIONS a vile act · vile smell · vile weather

IN THE STORY Blowing up the windmill fills the animals with fury.

- What a vile thing to say!
- There was a vile smell coming from the fridge.

19 bestow v. be-STOW · /bɪˈstoʊ/ (수여하다, 주다)

COLLOCATIONS bestow an honour on · bestow a title · bestow praise

IN THE STORY Napoleon creates a new medal and gives it to himself.

- The king bestowed a title on the brave knight.
- The award was bestowed on her for her research.

20 excess n. ex-CESS · /ɪkˈses/ (과도, 지나침)

COLLOCATIONS to excess · in excess of · an excess of

IN THE STORY The changed rule now forbids only drinking too much.

- He tends to eat to excess at parties.
- Temperatures were in excess of 40 degrees.

CHAPTER 8

Practice: Fill in the Blank

Choose the best word to complete each sentence about Chapter 8. Watch the form of the word (-ed, -s, -ly).

1. The animals decided that the killings had not _____ the rules after all.
(a) bestowed (b) bribed (c) violated (d) negotiated

2. Rebuilding the windmill with thicker walls was _____ work.
(a) tremendous (b) vile (c) rash (d) conciliatory

3. Napoleon now went everywhere with a _____ of guards and a cockerel.
(a) precaution (b) retinue (c) forgery (d) sentinel

4. Napoleon received the _____ for every good thing that happened.
(a) bribe (b) credit (c) excess (d) jealousy

5. Napoleon carried on secret _____ to sell the timber.
(a) sentinels (b) forgeries (c) negotiations (d) precautions

6. Frederick was full of _____ about the windmill.
(a) credit (b) excess (c) bewilderment (d) jealousy

7. A young pig tasted Napoleon's food as a _____ against poison.
(a) forgery (b) precaution (c) negotiation (d) retinue

8. The animals feared an _____ attack from Frederick.
(a) conciliatory (b) impending (c) rash (d) vile

9. Squealer told the angry animals not to be _____.
(a) conciliatory (b) treacherous (c) rash (d) punctual

10. People said Frederick had _____ officials to look the other way.
(a) bestowed (b) violated (c) bribed (d) negotiated

Practice (continued)

11. Napoleon called Frederick a _____ he would never trust.
(a) scoundrel (b) retinue (c) sentinel (d) precaution

12. The animals listened to the new story about Snowball in _____.
(a) excess (b) credit (c) jealousy (d) bewilderment

13. Despite many problems, the windmill was finished _____.
(a) rashly (b) vilely (c) punctually (d) treacherously

14. Frederick's money turned out to be _____.
(a) forgeries (b) precautions (c) sentinels (d) negotiations

15. Napoleon sent Pilkington a friendly, _____ message.
(a) treacherous (b) rash (c) conciliatory (d) vile

16. _____ watched every road into the farm.
(a) Retinues (b) Forgeries (c) Scoundrels (d) Sentinels

17. Frederick's _____ trick left the farm with nothing.
(a) conciliatory (b) treacherous (c) impending (d) punctual

18. Blowing up the windmill was a _____ act that made the animals furious.
(a) vile (b) punctual (c) rash (d) conciliatory

19. Napoleon created a new medal and _____ it on himself.
(a) bestowed (b) negotiated (c) bribed (d) violated

20. The rule about alcohol was changed so that it only banned drinking to _____.
(a) jealousy (b) excess (c) credit (d) bewilderment

CHAPTER 8

Let's Talk

Pick two questions. Try to use at least one word from this chapter in your answer.

1. Squealer reads out numbers showing that production has grown, but the animals would rather have more food. When do statistics fail to show real life?

2. Napoleon switches back and forth between Pilkington and Frederick. What does this tell us about his values?

3. After the battle, Boxer doubts that they really won anything. Was it a victory? Why or why not?

4. The hens thank Napoleon for the eggs they lay. Why might people praise a leader for things the leader didn't do?

5. The commandments change a little at a time. Why are small changes harder to notice and resist than big ones?

ANSWER KEY

1. (c) violated
2. (a) tremendous
3. (b) retinue
4. (b) credit
5. (c) negotiations
6. (d) jealousy
7. (b) precaution
8. (b) impending
9. (c) rash
10. (c) bribed
11. (a) scoundrel
12. (d) bewilderment
13. (c) punctually
14. (a) forgeries
15. (c) conciliatory
16. (d) Sentinels
17. (b) treacherous
18. (a) vile
19. (a) bestowed
20. (b) excess

CHAPTER 9

Boxer

SUMMARY

Boxer keeps working on the windmill despite his injuries, hoping to retire at twelve, while rations are cut for everyone except the pigs and dogs. Napoleon becomes President of the new Republic, weekly 'Spontaneous Demonstrations' keep the animals busy, and Moses the raven returns with his stories of Sugarcandy Mountain. When Boxer collapses, he is taken away in a van that Benjamin realises belongs to a horse slaughterer; Squealer insists Boxer died peacefully in hospital, and soon the pigs buy a case of whisky.

WORDS IN THIS CHAPTER

pension · superannuated · ration · readjustment · litter · spontaneous · devotee · republic · unopposed · complicity · contemptuously · collapse · knacker · affecting · demeanour · oration · lament · interment · wreath · uproarious

CHAPTER 9

Vocabulary

01 pension n. PEN-sion · /ˈpenʃən/ (연금)

COLLOCATIONS a state pension · retire on a pension · pension plan

IN THE STORY There is talk of a daily allowance of food for retired animals.

- My grandfather lives on a small pension.
- Many workers pay into a pension plan.

02 superannuated adj. su-per-AN-nu-at-ed · /ˌsuːpərˈænjueɪtɪd/ (늙어서 퇴직한, 노후한)

COLLOCATIONS superannuated equipment · a superannuated star

IN THE STORY A field is supposedly set aside for animals too old to work.

- The office was full of superannuated computers.
- The film starred a superannuated rock singer.

03 ration n. / v. RA-tion · /ˈræʃən/ (배급량 / 배급하다)

COLLOCATIONS food rations · cut rations · ration water

IN THE STORY Food allowances are cut again, except for the pigs and dogs.

- During the war, sugar and butter were rationed.
- Soldiers received a daily ration of bread.

04 readjustment n. re-ad-JUST-ment · /ˌriːəˈdʒʌstmənt/ (재조정)

COLLOCATIONS a period of readjustment · readjustment of prices

IN THE STORY Squealer uses a softer word instead of admitting that food has been cut.

- Returning from abroad required a period of readjustment.
- The company announced a readjustment of salaries.

05 litter v. / n. LIT-ter · /ˈlɪtər/ ((새끼를) 한배에 낳다 / 한배 새끼; 쓰레기)

COLLOCATIONS a litter of puppies · drop litter · litter the floor

IN THE STORY The four sows give birth around the same time to thirty-one piglets.

- Our dog had a litter of six puppies.
- Please don't drop litter in the park.

06 spontaneous adj. spon-TA-ne-ous · /spɑːnˈteɪniəs/ (자발적인, 즉흥적인)

COLLOCATIONS spontaneous applause · a spontaneous decision · spontaneous reaction

IN THE STORY Napoleon orders weekly marches called "Spontaneous" Demonstrations.

- The audience burst into spontaneous applause.
- We made a spontaneous decision to go to the beach.

07 devotee n. dev-o-TEE · /ˌdevəˈtiː/ (열렬한 추종자, 애호가)

COLLOCATIONS a devotee of · loyal devotees · a jazz devotee

IN THE STORY The sheep love these marches more than anyone.

- He is a devotee of classical music.
- The temple attracts thousands of devotees.

CHAPTER 9

Vocabulary (continued)

08 republic n. re-PUB-lic · /rɪˈpʌblɪk/ (공화국)

COLLOCATIONS declare a republic · the Republic of Korea · a democratic republic

IN THE STORY Animal Farm is officially declared a new kind of state with a president.

- France became a republic in 1792.
- The Republic of Korea holds elections every five years.

09 unopposed adj. un-op-POSED · /ˌʌnəˈpoʊzd/ (반대(경쟁자) 없는)

COLLOCATIONS elected unopposed · go unopposed · run unopposed

IN THE STORY Napoleon is the only candidate, so he becomes President without competition.

- She was elected unopposed as class president.
- The bill passed unopposed.

10 complicity n. com-PLIC-i-ty · /kəmˈplɪsəti/ (공모, 연루)

COLLOCATIONS complicity in · deny complicity · evidence of complicity

IN THE STORY New "documents" claim Snowball secretly worked with Jones.

- He denied any complicity in the crime.
- Silence can sometimes be a form of complicity.

11 contemptuously adv. con-TEMPT-u-ous-ly · /kənˈtemptʃuəsli/ (경멸하듯)

COLLOCATIONS laugh contemptuously · look contemptuously at · speak contemptuously

IN THE STORY The pigs scornfully call Moses's stories lies, yet let him stay.

- She looked contemptuously at the cheap jewellery.
- He laughed contemptuously at their plan.

12 collapse v. / n. col-LAPSE · /kəˈlæps/ (쓰러지다, 붕괴하다 / 붕괴)

COLLOCATIONS collapse from exhaustion · the collapse of · economic collapse

IN THE STORY Boxer falls down while pulling stone to the windmill.

- The runner collapsed just before the finish line.
- The bridge collapsed during the earthquake.

13 knacker n. KNACK-er · /ˈnækər/ (폐마 도축업자)

COLLOCATIONS send to the knacker's · knacker's yard

IN THE STORY Benjamin reads the van: it belongs to a man who kills old horses.

- In the past, old farm horses were sent to the knacker's yard.
- The word "knacker" is mostly used in British English.

14 affecting adj. af-FECT-ing · /əˈfektɪŋ/ (감동적인, 가슴 뭉클한)

COLLOCATIONS an affecting story · deeply affecting · affecting scene

IN THE STORY Squealer gives a moving description of Boxer's last hours.

- It was an affecting film about a father and son.
- Her speech at the funeral was deeply affecting.

CHAPTER 9

Vocabulary (continued)

15 demeanour n. de-MEAN-our · /dɪˈmiːnər/ (태도, 품행 (美 demeanor))

COLLOCATIONS a calm demeanour · change one's demeanour · cheerful demeanour

IN THE STORY Squealer's sad manner helps convince the animals of his story.

- Despite the bad news, she kept a calm demeanour.
- His cheerful demeanour made everyone relax.

16 oration n. o-RA-tion · /ɔːˈreɪʃən/ ((격식 있는) 연설)

COLLOCATIONS a funeral oration · deliver an oration

IN THE STORY Napoleon gives a short speech in Boxer's honour.

- The senator delivered a long oration.
- His funeral oration moved many to tears.

17 lament v. / n. la-MENT · /ləˈment/ (애도하다, 한탄하다 / 비탄)

COLLOCATIONS lament the loss of · much lamented · a lament for

IN THE STORY Napoleon speaks of Boxer as a comrade they all mourn.

- Fans lamented the closing of the old stadium.
- The song is a lament for a lost love.

18 interment n. in-TER-ment · /ɪnˈtɜːrmənt/ (매장, 안장)

COLLOCATIONS interment of the body · after interment

IN THE STORY Boxer's body cannot be brought back to be buried on the farm.

- The interment took place in the family plot.
- Only close relatives attended the interment.

19 wreath n. WREATH · /riːθ/ (화환)

COLLOCATIONS lay a wreath · a Christmas wreath · funeral wreath

IN THE STORY The pigs plan to send a ring of laurel leaves for Boxer's grave.

- The president laid a wreath at the memorial.
- We hung a Christmas wreath on the front door.

20 uproarious adj. up-ROAR-i-ous · /ʌpˈrɔːriəs/ (떠들썩한, 아주 웃기는)

COLLOCATIONS uproarious laughter · an uproarious party · uproarious comedy

IN THE STORY Loud singing comes from the farmhouse after the whisky arrives.

- The comedian's show was met with uproarious laughter.
- It was an uproarious evening with old friends.

CHAPTER 9

Practice: Fill in the Blank

Choose the best word to complete each sentence about Chapter 9. Watch the form of the word (-ed, -s, -ly).

1. There was talk of a _____ for animals who reached retirement age.
(a) wreath (b) pension (c) litter (d) ration

2. A corner of the pasture was supposedly set aside for _____ animals.
(a) superannuated (b) unopposed (c) uproarious (d) affecting

3. The _____ were cut again, except for those of the pigs and dogs.
(a) pensions (b) wreaths (c) rations (d) orations

4. Squealer used a softer word, _____, instead of saying the food was cut.
(a) complicity (b) readjustment (c) demeanour (d) interment

5. The four sows gave birth to many piglets; they _____ at nearly the same time.
(a) littered (b) collapsed (c) lamented (d) opposed

6. Napoleon ordered weekly marches called _____ Demonstrations.
(a) Affecting (b) Uproarious (c) Superannuated (d) Spontaneous

7. The sheep loved the marches; they were the most eager _____.
(a) pensions (b) devotees (c) knackers (d) wreaths

8. In April, Animal Farm was declared a _____.
(a) interment (b) knacker (c) Republic (d) devotee

9. Napoleon was the only candidate and became President _____.
(a) uproarious (b) unopposed (c) affecting (d) superannuated

10. New documents revealed Snowball's _____ with Jones.
(a) complicity (b) oration (c) demeanour (d) readjustment

Practice (continued)

11. The pigs _____ called Moses's stories lies, but let him stay.
(a) uproariously (b) contemptuously (c) affectingly (d) unanimously

12. One evening, Boxer _____ while dragging stone to the windmill.
(a) collapsed (b) lamented (c) devoted (d) littered

13. Benjamin read the lettering on the van: it belonged to a horse slaughterer, or _____.
(a) pension (b) devotee (c) knacker (d) republic

14. Squealer described Boxer's death in a moving, _____ way.
(a) affecting (b) superannuated (c) unopposed (d) uproarious

15. Squealer's sorrowful _____ helped convince the animals.
(a) interment (b) readjustment (c) demeanour (d) complicity

16. Napoleon gave a short _____ in Boxer's honour.
(a) pension (b) litter (c) oration (d) ration

17. Napoleon spoke sadly of Boxer, the comrade they all _____.
(a) opposed (b) collapsed (c) lamented (d) littered

18. Boxer's body could not be brought back for _____ on the farm.
(a) interment (b) readjustment (c) oration (d) complicity

19. The pigs planned to send a _____ of laurels for Boxer's grave.
(a) knacker (b) devotee (c) wreath (d) ration

20. That night, _____ singing was heard from the farmhouse.
(a) unopposed (b) uproarious (c) superannuated (d) affecting

CHAPTER 9

Let's Talk

Pick two questions. Try to use at least one word from this chapter in your answer.

1. Boxer dreams of retiring at twelve. What does "rest" or retirement mean to you?

2. Squealer calls a food cut a "readjustment." What polite words do companies or governments use to hide bad news?

3. Moses returns, and the pigs let him stay. Why might the pigs now find his stories useful?

4. Benjamin finally runs and shouts when Boxer is taken away. Why does he act only now?

5. Boxer gave everything to the farm. What does his story say about loyalty?

ANSWER KEY

1. (b) pension
2. (a) superannuated
3. (c) rations
4. (b) readjustment
5. (a) littered
6. (d) Spontaneous
7. (b) devotees
8. (c) Republic
9. (b) unopposed
10. (a) complicity
11. (b) contemptuously
12. (a) collapsed
13. (c) knacker
14. (a) affecting
15. (c) demeanour
16. (c) oration
17. (c) lamented
18. (a) interment
19. (c) wreath
20. (b) uproarious

CHAPTER 10

Manor Farm Again

SUMMARY

Years pass, and few animals remember life before the Rebellion; the farm is richer, but only the pigs and dogs live well. The pigs begin walking on two legs and carrying whips, and the commandments are replaced by a single rule saying, in effect, that the pigs stand above everyone else. At a dinner with the neighbouring farmers, Napoleon renames the farm Manor Farm, and the animals watching through the window can no longer tell the pigs from the men.

WORDS IN THIS CHAPTER

inebriate · rheumy · morose · taciturn · denounce · frugally · welfare · insoluble · hardship · profess · imperishable · haughty · deputation · misgiving · contend · subversive · diligently · gratified · malignant · dregs

CHAPTER 10

Vocabulary

01 inebriate n. in-E-bri-ate · /ɪˈniːbriət/ (술고래, 알코올 중독자)

COLLOCATIONS a home for inebriates · inebriated (adj.: 술 취한)

IN THE STORY Mr. Jones has died in a home for heavy drinkers.

- Victorian cities built special homes for inebriates.
- The inebriated man could hardly stand up.

02 rheumy adj. RHEU-my · /ˈruːmi/ ((노인의 눈이) 눈물 고인, 흐릿한)

COLLOCATIONS rheumy eyes · rheumy-eyed

IN THE STORY Clover is old and stiff, and her eyes are watery.

- The old fisherman looked at the sea with rheumy eyes.
- My grandfather's eyes were rheumy but still kind.

03 morose adj. mo-ROSE · /məˈroʊs/ (시무룩한, 침울한)

COLLOCATIONS a morose expression · grow morose · morose silence

IN THE STORY Since Boxer's death, Benjamin has become gloomier.

- He sat in morose silence after losing the game.
- Rainy days always make her a little morose.

04 taciturn adj. TAC-i-turn · /ˈtæsɪtɜːrn/ (과묵한, 말이 없는)

COLLOCATIONS a taciturn man · taciturn by nature

IN THE STORY Benjamin speaks even less than before.

- My taciturn uncle rarely says more than ten words at dinner.
- He was taciturn at first but warmed up later.

05 denounce v. de-NOUNCE · /dɪˈnaʊns/ (공개적으로 비난하다, 고발하다)

COLLOCATIONS denounce as · publicly denounce · denounce violence

IN THE STORY Napoleon condemns Snowball's dreams of comfort as against Animalism.

- World leaders denounced the attack.
- He was denounced as a liar by his former friends.

06 frugally adv. FRU-gal-ly · /ˈfruːgəli/ (검소하게, 절약하여)

COLLOCATIONS live frugally · eat frugally · spend frugally

IN THE STORY Napoleon teaches that true happiness lies in hard work and simple living.

- They lived frugally to save for a house.
- Students often have to eat frugally.

07 welfare n. WEL-fare · /ˈwelfer/ (복지, 안녕)

COLLOCATIONS animal welfare · the welfare of · social welfare

IN THE STORY Squealer says the pigs' paperwork is vital to the farm's well-being.

- The charity works for animal welfare.
- Parents care deeply about their children's welfare.

CHAPTER 10

Vocabulary (continued)

08 insoluble adj. in-SOL-u-ble · /ɪnˈsɑːljəbəl/ (해결할 수 없는; 녹지 않는)

COLLOCATIONS an insoluble problem · insoluble in water

IN THE STORY The animals cannot tell whether life is better than before; the question has no answer.

- Some puzzles seem insoluble at first.
- Oil is insoluble in water.

09 hardship n. HARD-ship · /ˈhɑːrdʃɪp/ (고난, 어려움)

COLLOCATIONS economic hardship · face hardship · endure hardship

IN THE STORY Benjamin says hunger, suffering and disappointment never change.

- Many families faced hardship during the crisis.
- They endured years of hardship after the war.

10 profess v. pro-FESS · /prəˈfes/ (공언하다, (사실이 아닐 수도 있게) 주장하다)

COLLOCATIONS profess to · profess ignorance · profess one's love

IN THE STORY Benjamin claims he remembers every detail of his long life.

- He professes to know nothing about the missing money.
- She professed her love in a long letter.

11 imperishable adj. im-PER-ish-a-ble · /ɪmˈperɪʃəbəl/ (불멸의, 사라지지 않는)

COLLOCATIONS imperishable fame · imperishable memory

IN THE STORY The animals never lose their deep pride in being part of Animal Farm.

- The poet hoped his words would be imperishable.
- Some childhood memories are imperishable.

12 haughty adj. HAUGH-ty · /ˈhɔːti/ (거만한, 오만한)

COLLOCATIONS a haughty look · haughty manner · haughty tone

IN THE STORY Napoleon walks upright, glancing proudly from side to side.

- The haughty waiter ignored our questions.
- She gave him a haughty look and walked away.

13 deputation n. dep-u-TA-tion · /ˌdepjuˈteɪʃən/ (대표단)

COLLOCATIONS send a deputation · a deputation of · receive a deputation

IN THE STORY A group of neighbouring farmers comes to inspect the farm.

- A deputation of parents met the principal.
- The workers sent a deputation to the manager.

14 misgiving n. mis-GIV-ing · /mɪsˈgɪvɪŋ/ (불안, 의구심)

COLLOCATIONS have misgivings about · serious misgivings · despite misgivings

IN THE STORY Pilkington admits humans once felt doubtful and worried about the farm.

- I had serious misgivings about the plan.
- Despite her misgivings, she signed the contract.

CHAPTER 10

Vocabulary (continued)

15 contend v. con-TEND · /kənˈtend/ ((문제와) 씨름하다, 맞서다; 주장하다)

COLLOCATIONS contend with · contend that · have to contend with

IN THE STORY Pilkington jokes that humans have their own lower classes to deal with.

- Farmers have to contend with bad weather.
- Some scientists contend that the theory is wrong.

16 subversive adj. sub-VER-sive · /səbˈvɜːrsɪv/ (체제 전복적인)

COLLOCATIONS subversive ideas · subversive activities · politically subversive

IN THE STORY Napoleon says the farm never wanted to stir up rebellion elsewhere.

- The government banned the book as subversive.
- The band was known for its subversive lyrics.

17 diligently adv. DIL-i-gent-ly · /ˈdɪlɪdʒəntli/ (부지런히, 성실하게)

COLLOCATIONS work diligently · study diligently · diligently follow

IN THE STORY The visitors watch the animals working hard in the fields.

- She studied diligently for the exam.
- The team worked diligently to meet the deadline.

18 gratified adj. GRAT-i-fied · /ˈgrætɪfaɪd/ (흐뭇한, 만족한)

COLLOCATIONS be gratified by · gratified to hear · deeply gratified

IN THE STORY Napoleon is pleased by Pilkington's friendly words.

- I was gratified to see so many people at the event.
- The author was gratified by the positive reviews.

19 malignant adj. ma-LIG-nant · /məˈlɪgnənt/ (악의적인; (의학) 악성의)

COLLOCATIONS a malignant influence · malignant enemy · malignant tumour

IN THE STORY Napoleon blames old suspicions on rumours from a spiteful enemy.

- The villain had a malignant influence on the young king.
- The doctor said the tumour was not malignant.

20 dregs n. DREGS · /dregz/ (찌꺼기, 앙금)

COLLOCATIONS to the dregs · coffee dregs · drain to the dregs

IN THE STORY Everyone drinks their glass right down to the bottom.

- There were only dregs left in the coffee pot.
- He drained his cup to the dregs.

CHAPTER 10

Practice: Fill in the Blank

Choose the best word to complete each sentence about Chapter 10. Watch the form of the word (-ed, -s, -ly).

1. Mr. Jones had died in a home for _____ in another part of the country.
(a) misgivings (b) inebriates (c) devotees (d) deputations

2. Clover's eyes were watery and _____ with age.
(a) rheumy (b) subversive (c) gratified (d) haughty

3. After losing his friend Boxer, Benjamin grew sad and _____.
(a) gratified (b) diligent (c) morose (d) haughty

4. Benjamin, always quiet, became even more _____.
(a) haughty (b) subversive (c) malignant (d) taciturn

5. Napoleon _____ Snowball's dreams of comfort as against the spirit of Animalism.
(a) gratified (b) professed (c) denounced (d) contended

6. Napoleon preached that the best life was a simple one, lived _____.
(a) uproariously (b) frugally (c) morosely (d) haughtily

7. Squealer said the pigs' paperwork was vital to the _____ of the farm.
(a) dregs (b) hardship (c) welfare (d) misgiving

8. Whether life was better or worse than before seemed an _____ question.
(a) rheumy (b) haughty (c) insoluble (d) imperishable

9. Benjamin believed that suffering and _____ would never go away.
(a) misgiving (b) hardship (c) welfare (d) deputation

10. Benjamin _____ to remember every detail of his long life.
(a) gratified (b) professed (c) contended (d) denounced

Practice (continued)

11. Even so, the animals never lost their _____ pride in Animal Farm.
(a) imperishable (b) insoluble (c) morose (d) rheumy

12. Napoleon looked down on the others with _____ pride.
(a) haughty (b) insoluble (c) taciturn (d) rheumy

13. A _____ of neighbouring farmers came to inspect the farm.
(a) deputation (b) hardship (c) dregs (d) welfare

14. Pilkington admitted that humans had once had _____ about Animal Farm.
(a) hardships (b) misgivings (c) deputations (d) inebriates

15. Pilkington joked that humans had their own troubles to _____ with, too.
(a) denounce (b) profess (c) contend (d) gratify

16. Napoleon claimed there had never been anything _____ about the farm's ideas.
(a) subversive (b) gratified (c) rheumy (d) imperishable

17. The visitors watched the animals working _____ in the fields.
(a) morosely (b) haughtily (c) diligently (d) frugally

18. Napoleon said he was _____ by Pilkington's friendly words.
(a) gratified (b) morose (c) insoluble (d) taciturn

19. He blamed the old suspicions on rumours from a _____ enemy.
(a) diligent (b) rheumy (c) malignant (d) gratified

20. Everyone raised their glasses and drank them to the _____.
(a) hardship (b) welfare (c) dregs (d) deputation

CHAPTER 10

Let's Talk

Pick two questions. Try to use at least one word from this chapter in your answer.

1. Most animals can no longer remember life before the Rebellion. Why does it matter who remembers the past?

2. In the end, the only rule left says some animals matter more than others. Where do you see this idea in today's world?

3. At the end, the animals can't tell the pigs from the humans. What do you think Orwell is saying about power?

4. If you could write one more chapter, what would happen to Clover and Benjamin?

5. Looking back at the whole book, which moment will you remember most? Why?

ANSWER KEY

1. (b) inebriates
2. (a) rheumy
3. (c) morose
4. (d) taciturn
5. (c) denounced
6. (b) frugally
7. (c) welfare
8. (c) insoluble
9. (b) hardship
10. (b) professed
11. (a) imperishable
12. (a) haughty
13. (a) deputation
14. (b) misgivings
15. (c) contend
16. (a) subversive
17. (c) diligently
18. (a) gratified
19. (c) malignant
20. (c) dregs